REGARDING YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

There are some distinct advantages which come as a result of doing your Christmas shopping early. This was pointed out in a sign posted in a Boston Post Office which read: Send your gifts early—besides facilitating the handling of mail, it gives the receiver a chance to reciprocate."

As we make plans for our Christmas shopping, I sincerely hope that we will make some provision to include Jesus Christ on our gift list. It is mighty easy for us to forget the One whose birth we are celebrating.

Southern Baptists have given Christmas a new meaning in recent years by making it an occasion to do something tangible and worthwhile. The Lottie Moon Christmas Offering has reached such proportions that it provides nearly one-half of our total foreign mission budget. It provides the grounds of hope for practically all the expansion and capital needs of our overseas work for Christ.

Our church has accepted the challenging goal of $13,000 for this special offering for foreign missions. Won't you please have a liberal part in this offering, for a gift given for this cause is a gift to our Saviour. "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

I would challenge each member of our congregation this year, as I have for the past several years, to give more to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering than you spend on any member of your family. Remember, it is the Lord's birthday we are celebrating.

Sunday promises to be a wonderful day. I will be looking for you here at the church—1300 strong.

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pleitz

THE LISTENING POST

This will be my last copy of this column. I would like to say so many things. I am flooded with many warm memories — memories that I cherish — memories of your warmth, love, dedication and concern. There are memories of youth responding to unbelievable challenges and making them reality. There are memories of workers going the second mile to provide leadership for young people. There are memories of a church that believes in the potential of youth and are willing not only to provide materially but also to give the time, prayers and guidance to a program that meets the needs of youth. There are memories of a pastor and staff with a vision of what can and should be done to expose young people to the needs of others. There are memories of successful camps, retreats, fellowships, youth weeks, student nights. All these warm my heart for I was a part of them.

But there, also, are yet undiscovered dreams, very real needs, much pioneering, challenges rearing their heads. All these, this church, its staff and youth are quite capable of meeting. I shall be watching with great pride as you and God make these dreams a reality. Thank you for every expression of your love and interest and some of the most meaningful years of my life.

LIBRARY NOTES

Those interested in Decorative Art of the different eras will find the following books in the church library:

DECORATIVE ART OF VICTORIA'S ERA is a panorama of the whole Victorian way of life. The author, Frances Lichten, has brought together a vast collection of material on every conceivable aspect of 19th century arts and customs.

FRENCH PROVINCIAL DECORATIVE ART by Catharine Oglesby is the first book available to English in many years on French Provincial furniture, textiles and ceramics.

Those who enjoyed recent antique displays in the city will be especially interested in these two books. Come by the Library and look at them — check them out.
