God Send Us Men

God send us men whose aim 'twill be,
Not to defend some outworn creed,
But to live out the laws of Christ
In every thought and word and deed.

God send us men alert and quick
His lofty precepts to translate,
Until the laws of Christ become
The laws and habits of the state.

God send us men of steadfast will,
Patient, courageous, strong and true;
With vision clear and mind equipped
His will to learn, His work to do.

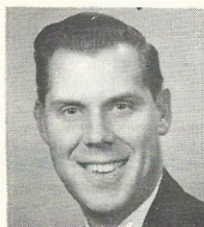

God send us men with hearts ablaze,
All truth to love, all wrong to hate;
These are the patriots nations need,
These are the bulwarks of the state.

On Losing By One Shot OR WAIT UNTIL NEXT YEAR

This was going to be my year to win the Greater Pensacola First Baptist Church Open Golf Tournament. Ever since my humiliating defeat of last year, I had counted the days until I would get another shot at the winner's trophy.

Our good and faithful deacons seemed to sense my burning desire to win. They gave me a beautiful set of golf clubs for Christmas. The clubs plus a PRACTICALLY new pair of white golf shoes I picked up at a bargain price, equipped me well for the battle.

My dream of conquest went up in smoke. At 1:45 p.m. on Friday, May 15, 1970, one shot did me in. One shot. One devastating, demoralizing shot.

What do you think it was? A wicked hook? A sickening slice? No. Did I top the ball into a water hazard? A sand trap? No. Was it a duck hook? No. The one shot that did me in was none of these. Nor did I hit the ball in the heel of the club, nor did I shank it. But like I said, one shot did me in!

At 1:45 p.m. Friday, May 15, 1970, a good and faithful doctor who knew nothing about the golf tournament scheduled for the next day, gave me a massive emulsified shot for sinus. Little did I dream that this one shot would cost me the game — but it did. When he said, "Don't use your arm for a day or two," I knew the tournament had gone down the drain. Thinking perhaps that he would make one exception, I asked him: "Doc, this doesn't rule out golf, does it?" "Yes, I'm afraid it does," he replied.

NOW I DIDN'T HAVE TO MISS THE GOLF TOURNAMENT. I COULD HAVE PLAYED. But it just so happens that I trust this doctor and frankly I would rather suffer one day of agony watching the other fellows play golf than to spend the next several months struggling to breathe. It's that simple. The doctor knows much, much more about sinus than I'll ever know.

IN A MORE SERIOUS VAIN, the good Lord knows much more about our lives than we will ever know. In an old book called the Bible, He has said quite frankly that some things must be avoided like a plague. Such things as pre-

WHAT ABOUT PUBLISHING WHAT MEMBERS GIVE!

Do you know what church leads all the Baptist churches in the South in per member giving? It is the St. John's Baptist Church (colored) in Dallas, Texas. One of the ways they encourage their members to give is by publishing at the end of the year the total gifts of each member to the penny! And the people like it!

This would be a drastic step in most Baptist churches. In fact, it would be the fastest way possible to reduce the size of the ordinary Baptist church (the church roll). But the wise old pastor said: "There are two things the devil tries to keep God's people from doing: telling what God has done for them, and TELLING WHAT THEY ARE DOING FOR GOD."

We let it be known when we've made a good Sunday School attendance record, when we've baptized many people. Then why should we try to keep our giving a secret? Jesus told the world what a poor widow gave (Mark 12:41-44).

Pray that during this year your gifts will be such that you need not be ashamed of what you have done for God.

marital sex, drunkenness, and all forms of immorality. In our sophisticated day and age we smile at all these prohibitions. We go on and "play" even though God says "no." Don't be surprised if your "arm" and "heart" are not both very sore tomorrow for "Whatsoever a man shall sow, that shall he also reap."
