ON BEING GIVEN TO EXAGGERATION

She is exactly right — as usual. My wife reminds me from time to time that I am given to exaggeration. Phrases like "It's the greatest" or "This is the best" are frequently found on my lips. A fellow ought to be careful about how he throws compliments around.

Of course we can be overly cautious. Why NOT tell your friend "You hit that golf ball a mile" when it didn't go but 285 yards. He KNOWS you didn't mean it literally — and besides, to him it did look like a mile!

Sometimes you have a choice. I didn't have to tell the cook in Hong Kong "that's the best shark's fin soup I've ever eaten." I COULD have said "that's the ONLY shark's fin soup I've ever eaten." But when you're given a choice, why not use the words that will warm a heart — and besides the soup was DELICIOUS.

Having just returned from a trip around the world, I can honestly say that this old world of ours is in a terrible condition. That's no exaggeration. Every day literally hundreds of people are saying this about the world—and it's true.

But hear me friend, our God has the power to change the condition of the world. AND THIS IS NO EXAGGERATION EITHER! Too frequently today we hear about the condition of our world as if it were a hopeless situation. It's not hopeless. If we would just give God half a chance, He would redeem this world of ours. Too frequently we hear people telling about the dire condition of the world without making any reference to the power of God to change it.

For over 11 years now, I've been telling every one I come in contact with, "The First Baptist Church of Pensacola is the greatest church on the face of the earth." I realize now that I was in no position to make such a statement. Perhaps it was an exaggeration. But now I can speak with more authority. Of course there is still a great deal of the world that I haven't seen, but having just circled it with eyes wide open I still insist you're the greatest!

I am looking forward to seeing you Sunday. The good Lord willing I want to share with you some of the impressions from our recent trip. It's great to be home—and that's no exaggeration either!

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pleitz
