Briefing Meeting

Last Sunday morning a group of our doctors and dentists met with Missionary Howard Shoemaker looking toward Operation Good Samaritan-South next August.

Operation Good Samaritan-South, a project planned by our Church in cooperation with the Foreign Mission Board, will take 100 young people and a dozen or more doctors to the Dominican Republic where they will be working with the medical Centers sponsored by the Baptist Churches there.

Pastor's Paragraphs

GIRLS ON THE GRIDIRON

It's that time of year. In just a matter of days the whistle will blow and it's back to the gridiron. Surely you will all join the pastor in pulling for the Arkansas Razorbacks to beat Stanford. (I wouldn't solicit your help if my team were playing ANY team in the Southeast Conference.)

Through the years football has been considered a man's game.

But no more. Pretty Pat Palinkas is not only playing the game — she has signed a professional contract with the Orlando Panthers. Her speciality is holding the ball for her husband, Steve, while he place kicks.

In an exhibition game last week, Pat bobbled the ball and she was smeared by a 200 pound lineman. I hope husband Steve will get the message. He needs to get someone else to hold the ball for him before his wife gets killed. There are some games ladies simply shouldn't play.

There are some who have the strange idea that Christianity is a game played only by the ladies. For many years I had this idea. I had to get knocked around a lot before it dawned on me that it takes a REAL man to be a Christian. Only the strong will follow Jesus.

QUESTION — Are YOU man enough — or woman enough — to follow Him? I'll look forward to seeing you Sunday in God's House.

Faithfully, your Pastor

James L. Pleitz

P.S. Of course Christianity is much more than a game. It's a way of life.

A WORD OF APPRECIATION

Many of our people had a part in contributing to the camp held for children from the Baptist Center. A letter has been received from Miss Carolyn Brooks reading as follows:

"The week-end camp for the children from the Baptist Center, which you helped make possible, was a tremendous success. We wanted to send you a personal "thank you" from one of the children at the camp, and a schedule of the activities we had. As you can see, we had a full schedule. Thank you so much for making this possible."

"Thank you for letting us come to camp. I have enjoyed swimming, singing and a lot of other things. It will be a great opportunity to come to camp Ada. I have enjoyed this very much."
