Pastor's Paragraphs

Through the years my life has been greatly encouraged by the Methodists.

Since the time of the Wesley Brothers, they have made a great impact for Christ on the world.

Consider this provocative article written by a Methodist Pastor in North Carolina. George Thompson has given me something to think about. How about you?

"THE ZERO" — This member is on the rolls but his presence is meaningless. In a world of tragic need he prefers to do nothing but care for his own selfish wants. Here is a body moving through life with no high goal. He would resent being referred to as 'inactive,' which, of course, he is—and would blow a fuse if someone questioned whether he was a member, as the church often has to do. He never comes to church and feels that it is no one's business if he does or doesn't.

"THE MINUS" — This member is active in the church at the wrong places. He is the knocker; something is always wrong. He finds everyone else full of evil, and wherever he goes he sows dissension and trouble. He does more harm than good, but he's convinced that he alone represents pure religion. He has earned the right to criticize the program, and like the Pharisee, has been present in the church from the beginning.

"THE PLUS" — This member can be counted on to be in his place on Sunday and give generously according to his means to the church budget. He accepts responsibilities on committees and boards and is glad to give whatever time he can when called upon to do so. Other members enjoy working with him and his life makes a difference in the church and in the world.

"THE MULTIPLIER" — This member is faithful and more. He has a vital concern for souls and for the world in need. He is a witnessing Christian who brings others into the Church. When an emergency need is made known he is ready to respond before he is asked. Wherever he labors in business he is a man of love, an agent of reconciliation. Through him the Kingdom of God grows. Christ is his Lord, and he holds nothing back.

How should we respond to such a stimulating survey? Let me suggest that personally this article makes me want to move up in my Christian living; that is, it makes me want to upgrade my commitment to Christ daily and make my discipleship really count.

See you in church on Sunday!
Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pleitz
