Pastor's Paragraphs

WHEN 5 CENTS IS ENOUGH

On Sunday, November 22, you will be asked to support the financial program of your church through a pledge.

Every wage earner is being urged to pledge at least one-tenth of his income to the work of the Lord. If you accept your pastor's challenge, the budget will be over-subscribed in a single day!

I am not sure how our adults will respond, (although I think I know) but there is no doubt in my mind about the response of our little folk.

One of our precious little girls, having heard an announcement regarding Pledge Day, wrote to her mother this note:

"Mommy—if I get 25 cents a week and give the church a nickel, is that enough?"

Although the note was written to "Mommy", I would like to answer it—"Yes, darling, that is enough. You are not only giving a tithe, you are giving a love offering on top of it."

What was it Jesus said? Oh, yes, now I remember. "A little child shall lead them." Jesus also said, "Go thou and do likewise."

I'll look forward to seeing you Sunday in the Meeting House.

Tithingly your pastor,

James L. Pleitz

GIVE GOD'S WAY

A large, bold, black number '100%' is centered on the page. The '1' and '0' are tall and thin, while the '%' is shorter and wider. The entire image is set against a background that consists of a repeating pattern of the text '0%' and '1%' in a smaller, white font. The '0%' and '1%' characters are slightly staggered, creating a sense of depth and texture. The overall effect is a high-contrast, graphic design element.

MEET OUR NEW ORGANIST

Mrs. Scott Getman will begin her duties as organist at First Baptist Wednesday evening. She is a graduate of New York State University at Potsdam and attended Westminister College for two years. She is married to Scott Getman, an engineer with St. Regis. They have two sons, Robert 12 and David 15.

Mrs. Getman, Betty, has been organist for Sunday evenings and Youth Choir director for Gadsden Street Methodist Church, and summer organist for First Presbyterian Church. She recently led in the organization of the Pensacola Chapter of American Guild of Organists and is serving as its Dean.
