Pastor's Paragraphs

ON CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

The rush is on: If you are going to be downtown on the SIDEWALKS, take every precaution. (You would probably be safer out in the street!)

A lot of the packages are wrapped and some of them are probably already under your tree. What do you plan to give Jesus? Keep in mind that it is His birthday we are celebrating.

The finest way I know of to give a gift to Christ is to make a sacrificial gift to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering.

How much do you know about Miss Lottie? Perhaps you need to refresh your memory.

Charlotte Moon was born December 12, 1849, in Albermarle County, Virginia. While she was teaching school in Cartersville, Georgia, she heard and answered the call to foreign mission service and was appointed in 1873 by the Foreign Mission Board for education work in North China.

For 15 years she labored sacrificially in the lonely Pingtu area. A task so great required reinforcements. In 1888 she penned an appeal to the newly organized Woman's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention. She said: "I wish you could send us two women in the fall for Pingtu. I would I had a thousand lives that I might give them to the women of China."

According to Miss Moon's suggestion, a season of prayer and an offering were instituted for foreign missions. The goal for the first offering was $2,000, but $3,000 was given, enabling three missionaries to be sent instead of two.

During the Christmas season in 1912, while Miss Moon was on her way to America with the hope that the voyage and rest would restore her health, she became weaker and weaker. On Christmas Eve, while her ship was in port at Kobe, Japan, her spirit left her body.

When Lottie Moon surrendered to the call of foreign missions she did not count the cost. She kept back no part of the price—she gave everything. How do you plan to match Lottie Moon's life? How do you propose to match the extravagance of her gift?

I'll look forward to seeing you Sunday.

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pleitz

THAT IMPORTANT GIFT — TO CHRIST

Half the month is gone—Have you given that most important gift yet? The mission dollar arrives at the Foreign Mission Board in three parts. The most consistent part comes through the Co-operative Program. A second part comes from the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. A third part is the designated dollar which will come from churches. We are receiving the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, praying we will go over our goal of $10,000 in December. This is a church goal, and we need the help of everyone.

We not only need you to give, we ask you to pray for all mankind. Only God can multiply and strengthen love for Christ, and this church, in the world. Your gift to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering will do this.

Governor Elect Reubin Askew

added a "spark" to the Banquet! Would you believe a flame? Our governor-to-be proved himself to be both a good sport and a courageous man when he allowed Bunny Martin to strike with his yo-yo a match, which the governor held in his mouth.

The presence of Governor Askew, his family, and the entire legislative delegation, must have said to the 600 athletes and another 500 guests: "We are interested in the youth of Pensacola." First Baptist Church is grateful for their support of the Banquet.

LINEBACKERS DO HAVE NAMES

The Navy Linebacker pictured in last week's BUILDER does have a last name. It is a little difficult to pronounce correctly, but it isn't that hard to spell. Bill's last name is Sciba.
