Pastor's Paragraphs

"ON TAKING DOWN YOUR CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS"

If you still have some of your Christmas decorations up, don't you think it's about time you took them down? I saw ole Santa Claus standing in a front yard the other day just as big as life.

We celebrated Christmas about three months ago — or to put it another way — there are 238 shopping days left until Christmas. Ole Santa looks pretty stupid standing in a front yard in March.

MOST OF US WILL AGREE — S. CLAUS SHOULD BE RESERVED FOR THE LATE WINTER.

ISN'T IT STRANGE THAT SOME PEOPLE HAVE THIS SAME IDEA ABOUT J. CHRIST.

There are some who make the mistake of reserving J. Christ for the late winter of life. In the late winter of life, everyone — BUT EVERYONE — turns to the Lord. As strange as it seems, plenty of folks who aren't willing to give Him a serious thought in the Spring or Summer or even Fall of life — are mighty anxious to establish contact with J. Christ when the cold blast of winter arrives.

Please friends, don't try to isolate Jesus Christ to the winter of life. HE IS NOT A SEASONAL GOD.

Speaking of seasons, when you really give J. Christ the place of preeminence in your life, IT'S SPRINGTIME ALL YEAR LONG!

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pleitz

WHO? ME?

Sharing in my America is a strange request you make of me, Lord. My country is one of prosperity and poverty, of festering cities, of moon walks, of confrontations. It is searching for identity just as I am.

Sharing in missions is a strange request that you make of me, Lord. The ability you gave to me to share with One or One Thousand who may not know you. I do believe in prayer, though. It brings change . . . change in me, in conditions, in situations. I believe prayer brings discovery; it gives relief. It is the basis for miracles. It is my lifeline. I believe in prayer . . . for the distressed, for the exuberant. It is a cry of pain, a shout of joy. Prayer is for all people everywhere. So Lord, please help me to share with One or One Thousand.

HELP NEEDED

For the past several weeks we have been emphasizing the fact that the people at First Baptist "CARE". Now we are beginning a program which will allow us to show "We Care" by our actions. On Sunday, April 18, 1971 we will begin our bus ministry — showing people we care enough not only to invite them to come to our church, but that we care enough to come pick them up. We will not have any riders, however, unless we first show our concern to go out and invite them to ride.

On Saturday, April 3, 10 and 17 we need people who do care enough to devote their Saturday mornings to knocking on doors and enlisting bus riders. Each of these Saturdays we will meet at the church for breakfast at 8:30. Then at 9:00 we will divide into teams to go into a selected area, canvassing the area for unchurched people. When these are found we will seek to enlist them to ride our buses. The more workers we have the more people we can see.

Please give of your self on at least one or more of these Saturdays. It will be work, but it will be the Lord's work and it will be a very real way for you to show that you CARE! Sign the slip below and return it to the church as soon as possible.

Yes, I CARE! I will work on Saturday _____ April 3: _____ April 10;

_____ April 17 for the bus ministry.

FOUND—A WATCH

One of our folks found a small watch, evidently owned by a young person, on their way to church last Sunday. Thinking that probably someone lost it on the way to church, they left it in the office. If you lost one, call Mr. Bizzell at the office.
