Christian Mothers

Blessed are they who have for memory,
A mother whose white spirit was aflame
For righteousness — who gave them eyes to see
The glory of an everlasting Name,
The splendor of a highway to be trod
Straight to the great and loving heart of God.

Blessed are they whose mother is today
A living presence walking by their side;
Whose love enfolds them as she kneels to pray,
Pleading for One to be their strength and guide.
Who has a mother in their desperate need,
Ah, truly, such as they are blest indeed!

Upon this day the children of the earth
Honor those Christlike ones who gave them birth.

Grace Noll Crowell.

The Naval Air Training Command Choir will sing here Sunday evening at 7:15 P.M.

The nationally famous singing group will sing several numbers during the worship service. At 8:15, the singing officers will present a program of light classical choral music in the dining hall. Everyone is invited to attend and refreshments will be served.

Lt. James E. Lois is the director of the Naval Air Training Command Choir which has appeared on the Johnny Carson Show, the Perry Como Show, and on the Mike Douglas Show.

You will want to hear this outstanding group. Come and bring a friend.

LIBRARY NOTES

Teachers: If you were asked the following questions would your answers be challenging enough to encourage your class members to do more effective Bible study?

1. What in Hosea's time provoked the Lord's "controversy" with the people?
2. Which sins are named in the Book of Hosea as being directly traceable to lack of mercy, truth and knowledge of God in the land?
3. When and where did Israel first worship Baal?
4. What is the interpretation of Isaiah's parable of the worthless vineyard?
5. What was Jeremiah's magnificent vision of desolation?
6. How did the rich respond to Micah's abuse against them?

There are books, magazines and filmstrips in your church library to help you if you are in need of additional study material. For example, there are copies of OUTREACH for April, May and June on the reading table, each of which contains excellent articles on Hosea, Micah and Jeremiah. In order that many may have access to these copies, we are asking that they be used in the Library.

Library hours: Sunday 9:00-9:30; 10:45 - 10:55; 4:00 - 7:10. Tuesday, 8:30 - 11:30; Wednesday, 4:00 - 7:10; Thursday, 9:00 - 12:00. The Library Staff would be happy to assist you in any way they can.

SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION

Any member of our church who is planning to attend the Southern Baptist Convention meeting in St. Louis June 1-4 is asked to notify Mr. Bizzell immediately. Messengers will be elected at the next Business Meeting and we need to know any who plan to attend.

BUS MINISTRY

Pictured above with the Pastor is part of the group which came in on the buses last Sunday. Forty-six rode the buses which represented a 77% increase over the previous Sunday. Congratulations to the "Charlie Brown" bus for having the most riders - 25. This bus had a crew composed of Assistant Bus Captain Tom Heifner, Scott Bell and Monique Burks. The "Snoopy" bus captained by Max Dickson had 21 riders and crew members Calvin Armistead, Sandra Lutrick and Tim Lutrick. The buses are having a contest each Sunday during May to see which can have the most riders as well as which can bring in the most new riders. Our thanks to the bus crews as well as others who continue to give of their time to visit in behalf of the church on the bus routes.

Pastor's Paragraphs

"WHAT MOTHERS ARE"

As far as I'm concerned, the greatest mother in all the world lives in Jonesboro, Arkansas. Mom has celebrated her 80th birthday, but she's still as spry as an 18 year old; and every Lord's Day, she's in God's House worshipping Him.

I'm not sure who wrote these words, but I guess we all feel this way about our mothers

"Mothers can begin being mothers when they are around sixteen, and they sometimes keep it up until they are past eighty, which must make it about the longest career on record.

They come in all sizes, shapes, and colors, but don't be fooled; the tiny ones can pack a powerful punch, and the big ones can faint at the sight of a spider.

When vandals besieged Rome, it was a stately mother, who, when the despoilers demanded her jewels, placed an arm around her children and proclaimed, 'These are my jewels!'

A mother will scream like a banshee at dirty dishes left in the sink, and then stay up until one a.m. baking the three cherry pies which YOU promised for the bake sale.

In a recent newspaper account, a pretty young mother offered one of her eyes for an operation for her son, who was losing his sight. Said the hard-bitten old surgeon: 'In the face of love like this, I stand speechless.'

Mothers will ask fathers if they think mothers are getting fat, and when fathers say yes, then mothers get mad.

One mother whose little runaway boy was brought home by the police, got on her knees and hugged him tightly, and then got up and gave him the worst licking he ever had!

Mothers can remember the birthdays and anniversaries of all the aunts and cousins, but they forget who called you from the malt shop right after school.

Your mother will take a folded newspaper and give the dog a spanking for getting up on your bedspread. Then, when he gets a piece of glass in his paw, she drives him to the vet, ten miles away and holds him on her lap while the vet fixes him.

You take one day a year to think especially about your mother; she takes the other three hundred and sixty-five to think about you."

What better way to honor your mother Sunday than by being in the Father's House.

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pleitz
