"THE SUMMER SURGE"

These are exciting days. The community response to OPERATION GOOD SAMARITAN-SOUTH has been nothing short of phenomenal.

Thank you, thank you, for the fine support you are giving to our young people in the attic sale. Let's all give something of real value for the June 5 sale and then be sure and be there to pick up some real bargains!

The Bus Ministry is just 6 weeks old, but we are already seeing wonderful results. Three of the young people riding the buses accepted Jesus Christ as their Lord and Saviour in a recent service. Many others have indicated an interest in giving their hearts to the Master.

Last week there were 69 riders on the buses. A number of other people were in the service who came in their own cars because some of our visitors who were canvassing for bus riders invited them to come and be with us. As a result of this Ministry, our Sunday School attendance is UP CONSIDERABLY. I honestly believe that we will have the finest summer ever.

Thank God for a church that seeks to help people with special needs in the community. As you know, for some time we have had a ministry to the deaf, to the seamen, and to our Spanish speaking friends.

Perhaps you didn't know that we have a Sunday School class for exceptional children. In the very near future we are planning to initiate a ministry for the blind.

Sunday is Memorial Day. We will gather to honor one who gave his life for us. But He is not dead, friend. He is very much alive.

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pleitz
