ARE YOU IN THE PICTURE?

Here is a picture of the Adult Department, Easter 1943. How many of these can you identify?

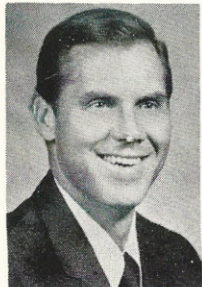

By the way, if a picture were made next Sunday, would you be in it?
Last Sunday we had an "Easter" attendance in July!

Pastor's Paragraphs

"ON BEING OPTIMISTIC"

There are a lot of "isms" loose in the world today. There's Communism, Socialism, Facism—and the deadliest of all the isms—PESSIMISM. Pessimism paralyzes and kills.

FOR THE CHRISTIAN TO BE PESSIMISTIC IS SIN. The child of God has every reason to be optimistic even in our world.

Jesus told us the going would be rough. He said we could expect three quarters of our efforts to be in vain.

Remember the sower? (Matthew 13:4-9). Three quarters of the seed that he planted brought forth exactly NOTHING. Only one of the four soils proved to be fruitful.

Jesus was realistic on the difficulty side of things, but he was also realistic on the possibility side of things when he said that the good ground would bring forth thirty-fold, sixty-fold, a hundred-fold — 3,000, 6,000, 10,000 per cent increase on the investment. Invest in persons and when you touch this one and set him afire, he touches another and he another and so on almost ad infinitum. An African proverb says, "Any fool can tell how many apples there are on a tree, but it takes a wise man to tell how many trees are in an apple." The possibilities in trees and persons are overwhelming.

We are in the middle of a wonderful summer. God has blessed in so many ways. ISN'T IT GREAT TO BE A CHRISTIAN AND A MEMBER OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH!

God willing I'll see you Sunday.

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pleitz

PROCEDURE FOR NOMINATING DEACONS

The committee for the Nomination of Deacons requests that every member of the church suggest men who should be considered by the committee for nomination as deacons. You may suggest as many as you think qualify.

These suggestions must reach the committee by Sunday, July 25. They may be given to any member of the committee, mailed to the church office in care of the committee, or dropped into the offering plate. Suggestions are to be submitted only by members of the First Baptist Church, and therefore must be signed to be accepted.

Your committee, selected for the purpose of recommending to the church the best qualified persons, requests that you read the scripture passages below and suggest the names of as many men as you believe to be qualified to serve as deacons. According to the policy of the church, inactive deacons will not be placed on the ballot unless suggested by one or more members of the church.

SELECTION OF FIRST DEACONS

"In those days, as the number of disciples kept growing, there rose complaint on the part of the Greek-speaking Jews against the Hebrews because their widows were overlooked in the daily charities. So the twelve summoned the assembly of the disciples and said: "It is not desirable that we should neglect the teaching of God's Word to wait tables; therefore, brothers, look around for seven men among you of good reputation and full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we shall appoint for this duty, while we continue to devote ourselves to prayer and the ministry of the word.'" (Acts 6:1-4, Berkeley Version).

THE CHARACTER AND QUALIFICATIONS OF ALL DEACONS

"By the same token are deacons to be honorable, not gossips, not addicted to much wine, not greedy for ill-gotten gains, but with a pure conscience keeping hold on the hidden truth of the faith. They should first be put on probation and then, if irreproachable, they may serve as deacons. Similarly must the wives be honorable, not given to slandering, but temperate and altogether trustworthy. Deacons shall be husband of one wife, admirable managers of their children and of their own homes. Because those who rendered helpful services as deacons do take a worthwhile step upward for themselves with considerable conversational freedom in the faith that centers in Christ Jesus." (I Timothy 3:8-13, Berkeley Version).

We urge you to be much in prayer that we as a church may know God's will in this all-important task.

This ballot will be on Sunday morning, September 12, when 11 men will be selected to serve on the active board of deacons.
