Pastor's Paragraphs

"OPEN DOORS"

GOOD SAMARITAN-SOUTH is now just 2 weeks away. Well over a year of planning and prayer has gone into this mission.

It will give our church a unique opportunity to make a real impact for God in the Dominican Republic. It is absolutely amazing the way the Lord has opened doors of opportunity. When one door has closed, invariably God has opened a greater one. The Fine Arts Auditorium in Santa Domingo was overbooked, making it impossible for us to give our first concert there, but the Lord proceeded to make it possible for this concert to be held in the National Palace, which is comparable to our White House.

I have on my desk a letter from Mr. Kenneth R. Giddens, who is the Director of the VOICE OF AMERICA with headquarters in Washington, D.C. Mr. Giddens has requested information about project GOOD SAMARITAN-SOUTH. His organization plans to share this program with people all over the world. GOOD SAMARITAN-SOUTH will bring credit to our Nation as well as to our Lord.

Please, friends, pray as you've never prayed before that God will take this mission and bring glory and honor to His name.

I'll look forward to seeing you Sunday in the Lord's House.

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pleitz

SERMON TOPICS

11:00 A.M.

"THE REDEMPTIVE FELLOWSHIP"

Romans 12:1-17

7:15 P.M.

"SUPERSTAR OR SON OF GOD"

Matthew 16: 13-17

DON'T PARK HERE!

Our attention has been called by the owners and employees of the Mobile Fone Answering Service across LaRue Street that some of our people are parking in the area immediately in front of their building. These spaces belong to them and are needed by their employees. (It is a 24 hour a day operation, including Sunday.) You'll cooperate, I'm sure, by not parking in front of their building.
