AMIGOS FROM THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

Pastor's Paragraphs

"MAN ON THE MOON"

From the beginning, man has been inspired by the creative handiwork of God. David said, "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handiwork."

When man stands on the earth and looks up into the heavens, he is reminded of God. Man reacts in the same way when he stands on one of the heavenly bodies and looks at the earth.

Our astronauts are brilliant men of science. They are also men with deep religious faith. In the minds of some, these things—religion and science—do not mix. The truth of the matter is, they go hand in hand.

Edward White started it all in 1965. Prior to the flight of Gemini 5, he sewed symbols of 3 faiths (Cross, St. Christopher's medal and the Star of David) into his space suit with, as he said, "the prayer of brotherhood for all mankind." Who can forget that dramatic reading from space on Christmas Eve of 1968. Millions were in the congregation when Frank Borman read from Genesis. Astronaut Buzz Aldrin observed the Lord's Supper prior to stepping from Apollo 11 onto the moon in July of 1969. Astronaut Edward Mitchell carried microfilm copies of the Scripture with him on the flight of Apollo 14.

The whole world listens when the astronauts speak out for God. I thank the Lord for these brave Americans.

I'm looking forward to seeing you in God's House Sunday.

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pleitz

LIBRARY NOTES

"Intrigue in Santo Domingo" by James C. Hefley is a "must" book to read if you are interested in knowing something of the situation and conditions into which our "Good Samaritans" are working. It is also a biography of Howard Shoemake, Director of the Southern Baptist work there. He is a godly man of unbelievable talents, energy, enthusiasm, courage, friendliness and dedication. He has made friends and has much support from all classes, the highest to the lowliest. Read this most interesting book and get acquainted with Mr. Shoemake and many of his colleagues, friends and converts. You will be able to converse with insight and understanding when our "Good Samaritan" missionaries return.

INSTITUTE

The Pensacola Theological Institute sponsored each year by the McIlwain Memorial Presbyterian Church will have its evening sessions here in our Church. On Sunday, August 15, the time will be 7:15. Monday through Friday, the time will be 7:30. The preacher for these evening services is Dr. Herbert M. Carson, Pastor, Hamilton Road Baptist Church, Bangor, N. Ireland.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

This year's Vacation Bible School provided a variety of enriching activities for our boys and girls of Preschool through Middle School age. It was a time of spiritual growth, and also a time of Christian fun and fellowship.

During the week we had 346 children enrolled. Our total enrollment was 434 and our average attendance was 372. We are indeed grateful for our 51 teachers who worked in 16 departments. Our special helpers during the week were 34 young people who worked very enthusiastically in each department. It was really a great week—so enjoyable and rewarding.

FOCUS ON FIRST FOLKS

Robert E. Ansley, Jr. made the Dean's List at Duke University.

These members of our congregation received Course Completion Certificates in Vocational and Technical Education at Pensacola Junior College last week: Charles Baker, Jerry Hobbs, Julia Crane, Mrs. Aubrey J. Guyette, Sandra Smalley.
