Pastor's Paragraphs

"WANTED — A GREAT CAUSE"

Dr. Will Durant, in "Letters to a Would-Be-Suicide," says: "If we think of ourselves as part of a living (no mere theoretical) group, we shall find life a little fuller, perhaps even more significant. FOR TO GIVE LIFE MEANING, ONE MUST HAVE A PURPOSE LARGER THAN ONESELF . . ."

That would-be-suicide to whom Dr. Durant was writing could not be saved from himself and his own troubles until he found some Cause outside of himself in which he might lose himself. Goethe says, "Be a Whole, or join a Whole." BUT MAN

IN HIMSELF CANNOT BE A WHOLE.

The need for a Supreme Cause is deeply written within us. That Cause must be embodied in a Person. For we are persons and cannot be ultimately attached to an impersonal Cause.

Prior to the Second World War, this was the motto of German Youth, "Whoever serves Adolph Hitler serves Germany and whoever serves Germany serves God." We doubt the sequence there but we see what they were searching for — some attachment to a person which would mean an attachment to a Cause which would mean an attachment to God. Only the Kingdom of God and Christ fulfilled that, for whoever serves Christ serves the Kingdom of God, and whoever serves the Kingdom of God serves God.

Dr. Durant's statement is worth repeating — "TO GIVE LIFE MEANING, ONE MUST HAVE A PURPOSE LARGER THAN ONE'S LIFE." It's one thing to read a statement. It's another to experience it. Try losing your life in Jesus Christ and I promise you friend, you'll find an excitement and fulfillment that cannot be found anywhere else.

I'll look forward to seeing you Sunday in God's House.

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pleitz
