MISSIONS BANQUET WEDNESDAY

6:00 P.M.

Dr. Claude Rhea, who will be the featured speaker for the Missions Banquet, has served as music consultant for the Southern Baptist Mission Board. He also has assisted with special evangelistic campaigns and fostering the development of church music on the mission field.

Dr. Rhea says his "Missionary Pilgrimage" began during childhood, when he learned about missions and met missionaries in his church. He had many music and missionary experiences in Europe where he served with the U.S. Army just after World War II. "My heart cried out to spread abroad the knowledge of the love of God," he says. "I was able to participate in actual Mission efforts through youth organizations, and thus I discovered God had given me a gift in music."

He is familiar to Southern Baptists as Soloist or Music leader for meetings of Southern Baptist Convention, Woman's Missionary Union Conventions, State Baptist Meetings.

Dr. Rhea is married to the former Carolyn Turnage of Florida. They have 3 children.

He is presently serving as Dean of School of Music, Samford University.

Pastor's Paragraphs

"ARE YOU RICH?"

Sometimes we forget to be thankful even during the Thanksgiving season. This simple story touched my heart. I want to share it with you.

"They huddled inside the storm door — two children in ragged, outgrown coats.

"Any old papers, lady?"

I was busy. I wanted to say so—until I looked down at their feet. Thin little sandals sopped with sleet.

"Come in and I'll make you a cup of hot cocoa," I said. There was no conversation. Their soggy sandals left marks upon the hearthstone.

Cocoa and toast with jam fortified against the chill outside. I went back to the kitchen and started again on my household budget.

The silence in the front room struck through me. I looked in.

The girl held her empty cup in her hands, looking at it. The boy asked in a flat voice, "Lady, are you rich?"

"Am I rich? Mercy, no!" I looked at my shabby slipcovers and worn place in the rug.

The girl put her cup in its saucer — carefully.

"Your cups match your saucers," she said. Her voice was old, with a hunger that was not of the stomach.

They left then, holding their bundles of papers against the wind. They hadn't said thank you. They didn't need to. They had said more than that. Plain blue pottery cups and saucers. But they matched.

I tested the potatoes, and stirred the gravy. Potatoes and brown gravy! Roof over our heads! My man with a steady job! These things matched, too.

I moved the chairs back from the fire, and tidied the living room. The muddy prints of small sandals were still wet on my hearth. I let them be. I want them in case I forget how rich I am.

"Happiness is a by-product of an effort to make someone else happy!"

I'll look forward to seeing you in God's House Sunday as we unite our hearts to express our THANKS to our wonderful Lord.

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pleitz

MISSIONS NIGHT

PRESCHOOL, CHILDREN

MIDDLE SCHOOL

Wednesday night, December 1, is going to be an important time for all of our church family. Our Middle Schoolers will be meeting in the Cellar. Children in grades 1-5 will meet with R.A. and G.A. Leaders in Adult 4. Preschoolers will be meeting with Mission Friends Leaders in their Mission Friends room (first floor of the Educational Building). A time of fun has been planned with games, music, special guests, and a slide presentation of Africa. You will want to be there! Tickets are 50c a person. Come and have a Camel Burger with us.

TRAILER PARK MINISTRY BEGINS

As part of our H. O. P. E. (Heart of Pensacola Endeavor) Project, our Trailer Park Ministry at the King George Trailer Park got underway on Tuesday, November 16, 1971. On that date, a Crafts Day was held for all the women living there in the Trailer Park, and was hosted by our own ladies who are working in this new ministry. From this Crafts Day, 19 ladies signed up for future Bible Classes and Craft Workshops. We feel that this was a very excellent beginning and a real opportunity for a new ministry from our church. Serving as Chairman of this part of the project is Mrs. Frank Osborne, and assisting as Co-Chairmen are Mrs. Conlee Pickens and Mrs. Wade Curington. Serving as the Bible teacher for the Bible Class will be Mrs. Tate Bousman. Your prayers and support of this new ministry are needed.
