FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
PALAFOX and LaRUA STS.
PENSACOLA, FLORIDA
JAMES L. PLEITZ, D.D.
PASTOR

VOLUME XVII

June 26, 1975

No. 26

Vice-Admiral James Wilson and the Naval Air Training Command Choir will be our special guests for the morning worship service on Sunday. This service will emphasize Christian patriotism.

Admiral Wilson will read the Scripture and lead in prayer.

The Naval Air Training Command Choir, directed by Lt. j. g. Earle W. Crisp will sing "America The Beautiful" and "Heritage" and will combine with the First Baptist Church Choir to sing "The Battle Hymn" and "O God Our Help In Ages Past."

The pastor's sermon is entitled "The Great Liberator."

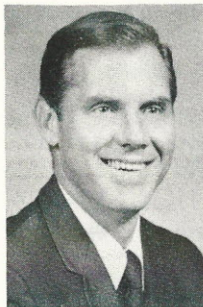

You'll not want to miss this service.

Pastor's Paragraphs

"I COULD HAVE DANCED
ALL NIGHT . . ."

Depending on your point of view, he has to be the world's best or worst salesman.

Recently a man who runs a dance studio in South Florida sold a dear little lady over $60,000 worth of dance lessons. The lessons cost $50.00 an hour. According to my calculations she could have danced 50 days and night non-stop.

The thing that makes this particular case so sad or funny—depending again on your point of view, is the fact that this lady is over 70 years of age, and has a bad heart. Some months ago she started wearing a pacemaker. She also uses a walker, since she has some difficulty walking.

I wonder what that slick salesman told her. He probably told her that she would be the belle of the ball. And if she knew all the latest dance steps, she would really be happy in life. Poor little lady, she was promised so much and received so little.

The case is now in the courts. She is trying desperately to get some of her money back from the dance studio. Thus far, she has been unsuccessful.

Some might say it's an isolated case, but the truth of the matter is that it happens every day. The devil makes all sorts of lavish promises to those who will sell out to him. If you bargain with him, he'll even promise you the world.

The way to find real happiness in life is by following Jesus Christ. The price of real discipleship is high. God demands your life. But when His demands are met, there are no disappointments. No real Christian has ever yet asked for his or her life back. Paul said, "For me to live is Christ." When Paul stopped living, he really started living!

The good Lord willing, I'll see you in church Sunday.

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pleitz

PROCEDURE FOR NOMINATING DEACONS

The committee for the Nomination of Deacons requests that every member of the church suggest men who should be considered by the committee for nomination as deacons. You may suggest as many as you think qualify.

These suggestions must reach the committee by Sunday, July 14. They may be given to any member of the committee, mailed to the church office in care of the committee, or dropped in the offering plate. Suggestions are to be submitted only by members of the First Baptist Church, and therefore must be signed to be accepted.

Your committee, selected for the purpose of recommending to the church the best qualified persons, requests that you read the scripture passages below and suggest the names of as many men as you believe to be qualified to serve as deacons. According to the policy of the church, inactive deacons will not be placed on the ballot unless suggested by one or more members of the church.

SELECTION OF FIRST DEACONS

"In those days, as the number of disciples kept growing, there rose complaint on the part of the Greek-speaking Jews against the Hebrews because their widows were overlooked in the daily charities. So the twelve summoned the assembly of the disciples and said: 'It is not desirable that we should neglect the teaching of God's Word to wait tables; therefore, brothers, look around for seven men among you of good reputation and full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we shall appoint for this duty, while we continue to devote ourselves to prayer and the ministry of the word.' " (Acts 6:1-4, Berkeley Version).

THE CHARACTER AND QUALIFICATIONS OF ALL DEACONS

"By the same token are deacons to be honorable, not gossips, not addicted to much wine; not greedy for ill-gotten gains, but with a pure conscience keeping hold on the hidden truth of the faith. They should first be put on probation and then, if irreproachable, they may serve as deacons. Similarly must the wives be honorable, not given to slandering, but temperate and altogether trustworthy. Deacons shall be husband of one wife, admirable managers of their children and of their own homes. Because those who rendered helpful service as deacons do take a worthwhile step upward for themselves with considerable conversational freedom in the faith that centers in Christ Jesus." (I Timothy 3:8-13, Berkeley Version).

We urge you to be much in prayer that we as a church may know God's will in this all-important task.

This ballot will be on Sunday morning, September 7.
