THE NEW LIFE FOR THE NEW YEAR

Life is a journey.

I will live it trustingly.

“Though I walk through the valley of the shadow. . .

I will fear no evil, Thou art with me.” (Psa. 23:4)

Life is a task.

I will live it obediently.

“We keep His commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in His sight.” (1 John 3:22)

Life is a mission.

I will live it helpfully.

“Be ye kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another.” (Eph. 4:32)

Life is a contest.

I will live it earnestly.

“Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit ye like men, be strong.” (1 Cor. 16:13)

Life is a battle.

I will live it courageously.

“Be strong and of good courage; be not afraid; for the Lord thy God is with thee.” (Josh. 1:9)

—Frank E. Bigelow

Pastor's Paragraphs

WHEN THE TREE COMES DOWN

Sometime ago Kenneth Wilson, editor of The Christian Herald Magazine, wrote an editorial entitled "WHEN THE TREE COMES DOWN." Among other things, he said; "The mopping up side of things is a part of the Christmas story straight out of the Bible. 'And the shepherds returned . . . They had oh'd and ah'd at the manger and hadn't known quite what to say or think for the sublimity of the moment. Then it was back to the fields, where now there were no visions, only sheep. Back to the old routine. Fires to be rekindled. Debts to be paid. A living to be made. Encroaching dangers to be fended off. It would be a dismal way to end the story. But there is something more; 'Glorifying and praising God for all the things which they had seen and heard.' Which means, they took their Christmas carols with them. They didn't use up all of Christmas at once. They went away from Christmas with a carryover, not a hang-over. Back to the old routine? No, back to the new routine. The Christmas they carried in their hearts touched all that they saw and did with its wonder."

Most of us need this message, now that the pine needles have fallen and as we return to the sheep. May the memory of all that we saw and heard and felt send us back to a new routine.

Sunday we'll start a brand new year together with God. I surely hope that you'll make a special effort to be in the Lord's House. Bring a friend and let's worship the living God together!

Devotedly your pastor,

James L. Pleitz

TWO TAX SAVING IDEAS

If you have stock that has appreciated—give it to the church and avoid paying any capital gains tax—plus get a tax deduction on the entire current value of the stock.

If you have a stock that has lost value—sell it yourself—take the tax loss yourself and then give the proceeds to the church for a tax deductible gift.

For specific information on how many tax dollars you can save by applying the above ideas to your situation call the church office at 433-5631 or come by the church office and pick up a free bulletin on tax saving ideas.
