Viewpoint

FRIENDS—Some people are busy making a life rather than a living. A letter from a friend who lives with her physical handicaps told Mrs. Brooks of the happy time in their home at the Christmas season. In addition to a relative who spent several days, other guests were: a minister and his family who spent two days—"also a doctor from Japan and one from Norway, both over here for post graduate study. Then our blind boy from India surprised us with a little visit. He's a darling, even takes his turn at washing the dishes! I just lay on my good sofa and planned meals, ordered groceries, assigned K. P. jobs, put out bed linen at night, answered the phone and watched all the good times. Honestly, I didn't hurt myself!"

That did not happen on some large farm, or in a home of great wealth, or where there were servants to look after all of the practical details of entertaining. That happened in a Christian home where the wife has been confined to the bed, or a sofa, a large part of the time for years, where the husband is a busy man with heavy professional responsibilities, where the two children are in school—it happened in a home where the excuse could have been, "We can't."

It's great to have friends who know how TO LIVE. Do You?

PARABLE—Dr. Louie Newton writes, "Professor Ullin Leavell of the University of Virginia was speaking at our mid-week service at Druid Hills, and he referred to the fact that the nine Leavell brothers were reared in a Mississippi home, mud-bound, lamp-li, etc. He asked if anyone had walked to our meeting house that night, adding that the Leavell family walked to church, walked to school. I sat there thinking about that family—nine sons who went forth from that humble home to serve the world. No electric lights, no automobile, no radio or TV, no telephone, no movies, no comic books, no cocktail parties, no juvenile delinquency."

MUSIC NOTES

MUSIC STUDY COURSE. This book is designed for the whole church—musician and lay person alike. All Sunday School and Training Union teachers and officers, pianists and song leaders, choir members and others should plan to attend.

"MUSIC AND THE SCRIPTURES"

By I. E. REYNOLDS

A music study course vital to all.
FEBRUARY 3, 6, 7, 8 and 9—7:00 P.M.
Taught by the Pastor

DID YOU KNOW?

1. That musicians were "set aside" in Bible times?
2. That music was given a definite place in the worship service?
3. That three-fourths of the books of the Bible refer to music?
4. That there are hundreds of references to music in the Bible?
5. That God's chosen people were music lovers and made much of music-vocal and instrumental?

GRADED CHOIR. All of our choirs will resume regular rehearsals schedules next week.

CHAPEL CHOIR meets Sunday afternoon at 5:15; Senior Ensemble meets at 4:30. Other choirs meet at same time.

SUPERINTENDENTS' MEETING

Tuesday Night is the time for our Monthly Superintendents' Meeting. We will meet in the WMU Room at 7:30. All General Officers, Department Superintendents and their Associates are urged to be present.

NORTH HILL NARRATIONS

A training Union record was broken at North Hill Chapel Sunday evening with 75 in attendance. We are now using our new educational building and it is really proving to be a blessing. New records for Sunday school, training union, and church visitation have been set in the past two weeks.

We invite everyone to come out and see the new building and we know that you will be thrilled to see what has been done with the building money at North Hill.
