Brotherhood—As our own Brotherhood meets next Tuesday night, I will be speaking to the Fort Walton Baptist Church Brotherhood.

All Former Pastors of the church, including Dr. Roland Q. Leavell, who has served the church on several occasions as interim supply, are being invited to participate in a week of evangelistic emphasis at the time that we go into our new sanctuary. As soon as possible we want to let you know that these men have accepted our invitation.

The Westmorelands have gone to Ridgecrest to take part in the Church Music Conference there.

Mrs. Sharp, the mother of Mrs. Frank Bledsoe of Circle Chapel, came to Pensacola to help with Elaine, so that Mrs. Bledsoe could assist in the Chapel Bible School. Because of illness, Mrs. Sharp has had to be in the hospital this week.

Circle Chapel had 130 present at the Vacation Bible School Tuesday morning. They also had 21 at the Associational Training Union Meeting last Monday night. Congratulations!

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. J. L. INGRAM

Baptized into this Church, July 8, 1917
Died, June 8, 1956

YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT SOCIAL

The Young People's Department of the Sunday School is sponsoring a "Shrimp Boil" at Wayside Park Saturday, June 16th, at 7:00 P.M. All single young people 17-24 are invited to attend. College students home for the summer are especially invited.

Reservations are to be made by calling the church office, HE 8-0779 or HE 3-2712, Miss Eloise Hughes, by noon Saturday.

Music Notes

In the absence of the Music Director and Organist, our church is fortunate to have Mrs. Martha Parker, Director of the Pensacola High School Chorus, and Mr. Leonard Gay, local musician and piano teacher, to assume a major portion of the musical responsibilities for the Sunday Services. We are grateful to Miss Susan Pohlman, who will assist at the organ at the Wednesday night services and one Sunday evening service, and to Mr. Sidney Kennedy, one of our college students, who will lead the singing. Thanks, also, to Mrs. L. M. Gatlin for helping with the Concord Choir on Wednesday evenings.

NOTE—The Senior Ensemble will not practice on Sunday evenings as usual, but will attend the first part of the regular Church Choir rehearsal to practice a special number with the Church Choir.

Your Music Director and Organist will be at Ridgecrest attending Music Week for one week and will take a few days vacation at the same time. We will miss you and expect to return with many new ideas for our music program next year. Your prayers will be deeply appreciated.

The Young People's Choir, which practices on Sunday evenings at 5:00 p.m. in the Lower Auditorium, will furnish special music for the Evening Service, Sunday, June 24. ALL Young People are urged to attend rehearsals these next two Sundays so that we may do our best. College students are particularly urged to attend. Arise! O Youth of God!

"Nature overflows with the raw material of music, but human art organizes this into musical strains. Here, if ever, is man face to face, ear to ear, heart to heart with God."—J. W. Stimson.

A FATHER'S PRAYER

I pray not for riches untold
To be measured in terms of man's gold,
Nor even for absence of sorrow
Or knowledge of happenings tomorrow.

Hear instead this brief prayer
For the children you've placed in our care,
That in their run of life's race
They may never turn from thy face.

May their needs for each day be met
And their lives for the Master be kept.
Let our home life be faithful and true
To thee, Lord, in all that we do.

—Gaye L. McGlothlen
