Viewpoint

By NATHAN C. BROOKS, JR.

Leading the Pensacola Bay Baptist Association in Sunday School Awards on May 31 was the First Baptist Church, with a total of 276. Of this number 9 were issued at Circle Chapel and 22 at North Hill. The remaining 245 were issued at the Mother Church. East Hill stands second with a total of 252. This figure actually is 7 ahead of the number issued at our Palafox and LaRue operation.

Miss Olive Swearingen has been away from Pensacola during the past year but she has not forgotten the Junior boys and girls with whom she worked for so long. She has asked for the privilege of helping a Junior to go to our First Baptist Church Junior Camp in August. Perhaps there are other members of our church who would like to assist a young person in this way.

Vacation Bible School will end at First Baptist and Circle Chapel this Friday but will begin at North Hill Chapel on next Monday. Those who missed Bible School can still attend by going to North Hill.

Our Building work is progressing nicely, though you can not see what is taking place in the interior as you look from the outside. Arches in the sanctuary ceiling are in place. The grill work at the organ openings has been going into place this week. The organ chambers are under construction. Some of the ceiling is in place and some of the base trim has been added. Dreams will be realized in three to four months now.

MEMORIAL FLOWERS

The flowers are being placed in the auditorium Sunday in memory of Mrs. Lula Mayo, who died on June 24, 1955 by her husband, Lawrence Mayo, and daughter, Mrs. Ruby Sommermeyer, and two sons, Dr. Wallace and Dr. Larry Mayo.

THE LORD'S SUPPER
will be observed
SUNDAY NIGHT
