NUMBER 33

Wait . . .

Did it ever occur to you that if you do not hear God's answer to prayer, it may be not because He is dumb, but because you are deaf; not because He has no answer to give, but because you have not been listening for it?

We are so busy with our service, so busy with our work, and sometimes so busy with our praying that it does not occur to us to stop our own talking and listen if God has some answer to give us with the "still small voice"; to be passive, to be quiet, to do nothing, to say nothing, in some true sense, think nothing; simply to be receptive and waiting for the voice.

"Wait thou only upon God," says the Psalmist; and again, "Wait on the Lord."

Viewpoint

By NATHAN C. BROOKS, JR.

A letter came from Dr. Rousseau this week which I appreciated very much. I feel certain that he will not object to my sharing parts of it. He said, "In my time however things were on a very small scale compared with the present. We only had some 600 members on the rolls. Looking back across the years, I think my chief contribution to the ministry of the church was the establishment of sound business principles in its administration, and the instilling of a deep consciousness of stewardship and every member responsibility. In my time there were very few who could give as much as $100.00 to any cause without great sacrifice. There were only two men in the church of sufficient importance to belong to a civic club, Dr. Pierpont and Judge Beggs. Denominationally it was a time of crushing debt, controversy, and the stealing of a million dollars from the Home Mission Board by Carnes. There was also the great damage to the church by the 1926 hurricane, as well as a heavy and continuous need for repairs by the rotting of supporting beams and pillars, so that at one time the building was considered to be unsafe.

Nevertheless, we plugged along, paid back debts, burnt notes, and operated on a cash basis to the amazement of other churches who had to resort to various questionable means of raising funds. We also bought additional property.

The church had no staff other than Miss Florida Waite, Old Greeley, an old negro janitor, with whom the women always fussed because of dust on the pews, and myself.

The very fine work with young people characteristic of the church may be attributed entirely to the indefatigable labors of Miss Florida." (Miss Florida Waite).

Requests for Homes, apartments, or rooms in which teachers might stay have come to the Church Office. Also one college student from Jay is anxious to arrange for a room in a Baptist home. If you have anything to offer, how about writing a description and turning it in at the Church Office. (Please write, rather than call by 'Phone). Perhaps the church can be of service to students and teachers in this way.

Next Week, August 22, we are to have the privilege of hearing from Stanley Davis at the Prayer Service Hour. His report to our W. M. U. of his Summer Service in Paraguay was "tops". I am sure you will want to hear him next week.

August 29, we will hear from Andy Williams and Nathan C. Brooks III concerning

Music Notes

I like to sing in my church choir because:

IT IS A LEARNING PROCESS. There's a right way and a wrong way to sing and I like to know the difference. My choir director knows the music of the past and present and I, too, become acquainted with the great music of the ages.

IT MAKES THE SCRIPTURES MORE MEANINGFUL. When Bible verses are read I seem to remember best those that have been set to music and which we have sung. I associate the music with the words and each becomes more beautiful.

IT GIVES ME EXTRAORDINARY OPPORTUNITIES. I can participate in activities denied to the average person. As a choir member I have looked deeply into the background of great oratorios and other religious music, and have deepened my love for and appreciation of these great stories in music.

IT HELPS ME MAKE NEW FRIENDS. I always find congenial friends who also enjoy music among the choir members at choir rehearsal on Thursday night.

I CAN CONTRIBUTE TO THE CHURCH PROGRAM. Being a member of a large church it is impossible for me to participate in all the numerous activities of the church. But, in the choir, I can contribute my time and services to the work of the church and keep in touch with its program through rehearsals and the Sunday services.

I ENJOY SINGING. I really enjoy the hours of rehearsal. Singing relaxes me. Because I like to sing I can give up precious leisure hours for extra rehearsals and special services.

These are some of the reasons I enjoy singing in my church choir.
