"An Open Letter to God"

Dear God:

"You see, God, it is like this . . . we could attend church more faithfully if your day came at some other time. You have chosen a day that comes at the end of a hard week, when we are all tired out. Not only that, but it is the day following Saturday night, and often we go to the movies or have a party and it is after midnight when we get in. In fact the children are often late for Sunday School, because it is difficult for us to get up early enough. It is usually after nine o'clock before we get the breakfast dishes washed, and then it is time to think about Sunday dinner.

"You have picked out the very day on which the morning paper takes longest to read and also the day on which we have the biggest dinner of the week. Then, too, we must think of John. He is cooped up in the office all week and Sunday morning is the only time to clean the car and for doing odd jobs around the house. And you know how John enjoys fishing, and you really can't blame him for going when he can. The whole family enjoys a picnic, and Sunday is the only time the family can have some recreation together.

"I am telling you all these things because I want you to see our viewpoint and that it is not our fault that we are not able to go to church on Sunday morning. We would like to go, and we know that we should go, but the real reason we cannot go is that you have chosen the wrong day. If you will select another day, we shall be glad to give the matter further consideration.

Sincerely,

"I. M. Delinquent"

STOUTHEARTED MEN

AND JANUARY 31

The price of admission was ten cents. A fellow didn't just throw that kind of money away. When I was a boy it was a real occasion to go to the show.

I would go about every other Saturday except when there was a serial showing. In that case I would go every week and see it through twice. The movies did not run continually in those days or I would probably have stayed to see it the third time!

Back then the price of admission was considerably lower and the moral content of the movie considerably higher. You could go see a movie without blushing — or feeling guilty for having seen it.

Back when I was a boy the big matinee idol was Nelson Eddy. He was in the Canadian Mounted Police. He always got his man — and woman — Jeanette MacDonald.

As I remember, he wasn't much of a horseman. Or gunslinger. Or fighter. But he had no peer in one department. Nelson Eddy was the finest singer to ever serve in the Canadian Mounted Police.

There was one song I remember in particular. It was a song about stouthearted men. I can't remember all the words but I do remember some of them. They went: "Give me some men who are stouthearted men and I'll soon give you 10,000 more. Start me with ten who are stouthearted men and I'll soon give you 10,000 more."

You know, there is a lot of truth in this song. Ten real men — ten stouthearted men — can accomplish a lot. With eleven stouthearted men, Jesus launched the Christian movement.

January 31 is the date. On January 31 we are going to visit the lost and straying in our community. You will hear more about this new program of visitation, but I wanted to mention it now so you could mark the date — JANUARY 31.

Our goal is not ten stouthearted men, but ONE HUNDRED STOUTHEARTED MEN AND WOMEN. Make your plans now to be a part of this great effort.

I'll look forward to seeing you Sunday.

Faithfully your pastor,

James L. Pleitz

SOUTHWESTERN SEMINARY CHORUS TO APPEAR

Shown above is the Men's Chorus of Southwestern Seminary with their director, James McKinney, Dean of the School of Music. This Chorus will present a concert of Sacred Music in our Sanctuary on Friday, January 20, at 7:30 p.m.

The appearance here is part of a tour which began on January 12 and will carry them to churches and universities in a five-state area — Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Florida and Arkansas. The program will include a wide variety of early and contemporary music literature and American folk hymns.

LIBRARY NOTES

For those who take "the primary stuff of reality" — marriage, birth, work and death — pretty much for granted, "The Common Ventures of Life" by Elton Trueblood will come as a happy revelation. The young man worried about his life work, the young woman confused about love and marriage, the parents "at sea" about how to bring religion back into the home — all will derive help from this book.

Vonda Kay Van Dyke, Miss America of 1965, has written a book entitled "That Girl in Your Mirror". Filled with fascinating sidelights of the making of a Miss America, here is down-to-earth counsel, challenge and inspiration for that all-important person — That Girl in Your Mirror.

Attend Prayer Service Wednesday Night.

MEMORIAL FLOWERS

The Church Flowers Committee is now making its plans for the year 1967. Anyone desiring to place memorial flowers on a given Sunday is asked to get your request in to the Church Office. The Committee will honor the request in as far as possible. Where there are duplications (two requesting the same date) adjustments will be made with those concerned. A prompt request will assure securing of the date desired.

THE VERY NEWEST

The rosebud on the pulpit Sunday was placed there in honor of

MISS CHARLOTTE SUZANNE BAKER daughter of
Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Baker
born January 3

2. Thou shalt not to an image bow the knee.
3. Thou shalt not take the name of God in vain.
4. See that the Sabbath thou do not profane.
5. Honor thy father and thy mother, too.
6. In act or thought, see thou no murder do.
7. From fornication keep thy body clean.
8. Thou shalt not steal though thou be very mean.
9. Bear no false witness; keep thee without spot.
10. What is thy neighbor's, see thou covet not.
