No. 12

He Is Risen!

Alive, acknowledging no mastery in hostile circumstances!

Alive, giving us, amid the snarling clamors of the day, voices that will not die away in error and incompetence.

Alive, offering the inexhaustible fountains of His strength.

Alive, keeping pace with the most unexpected challenges.

Alive, able, willing, mighty to save,—our eternal contemporary.

Listen! "If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." (Romans 10:9-10)

Be not hard to convince.

Be not slow of heart to believe.

Be not slow of faith.

Be not stubborn of will.

Be not foolish of mind.

Let not your heart be so set upon this world that you have no eyes or ears for the world to come.

Come to Christ!

Christ your Physician . . . you shall have health.

Christ your Bread . . . you shall never hunger.

Christ your Light . . . you shall not walk in darkness.

Christ your Joy . . . you shall have comfort in sorrow.

Christ your Righteousness . . . you shall have no condemnation.

Christ your Acquittal . . . you shall have no sentence. Look unto Him on the cross crucified for your sins. Look unto Him risen from the dead for your justification.

BOOK REVIEW

The book "The Trinity" by Bickersteth is the most interesting and informative study of the Holy Trinity that I have ever found. I would recommend it very highly to the person who is interested in some serious Bible study.

An Easter Prayer

O God, who through Thine Only begotten Son Jesus Christ has overcome death and opened unto us the gate of everlasting life; grant that, as He was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also may walk in newness of life and seek those things which are above, where with Thee, O Father, and the Holy Spirit, He liveth and reigneth for ever and ever.

Amen.
