REC. NOTES

Don't forget this Friday, September 22, is Family Night at the Activities Center. The spaghetti is going to be great; there will be skating, volleyball & basketball; and we're waiting for you!! Supper will be $1.50 per plate for adults and 75¢ for children below middle school age.

Be watching for a starting date for our leathercraft class — some of the purses and belts would make great Christmas gifts!

MIDDLE SCHOOL CHURCH TRAINING EVENT

Middle School Youth will have a get-together at the Activities Center on Saturday, September 30, 7:00-10:00 P.M. The purpose is to meet the new Middle School Church Training leaders, to be introduced to the church training program and to meet the new middle school youth who will be a part of the Church Training activities this year. Recreation group activities, and snacks are on the agenda — bring 25¢ for skating. If you cannot attend on Saturday, be sure to join the group at 6:00 p.m. Sunday in the Youth 8 room. Leaders for Middle School Church Training are Janice Woolf and Mr. and Mrs. Franz Cornelius.

FIRST BAPTIST SINGERS
PERFORM AT UNITED WAY BANQUET

Several members of First Baptist's adult choir provided music at last Tuesday's United Way Kick-off Banquet at the Municipal Auditorium. Those participating were Patty and Earl Crisp, Kaaren Miles, Linda Thompson, Cecilia and Bob Belvin, Leon Starr, Bill Merritt, Martha Parker, Karen Williamson, and Phil Fox. Deanne Harmon accompanied, and Joe Scott directed. Our thanks goes to these for their effort in representing First Baptist at this significant event in the life of our city.

VOLLEYBALL

Our intramural volleyball league will start October 5th at 6:30 p.m. at the CAC. At this point we'll have teams from high school and Single Adult 2. There was either no response or not enough response from Adult 2, Adult 3, and Adult 4 for any other teams. If any of these departments change their minds, please let us know soon by calling the Activities Center.

ROUND UP DAY
SEPTEMBER 24

PRAYER BREAKFAST

Our bi-weekly Prayer Breakfast will be held Tuesday morning, September 26, 6:45 A.M. in the church dining room. These breakfasts provide a wonderful opportunity for fellowship with fellow Christians and with the Lord.

ANNUAL BAY CREST
SOCIAL & SALE

The residents and volunteers at Bay Crest Nursing Care Center will hold their annual social and sale on Saturday, September 30 from 1:00 - 5:00 P.M. The sale will feature hand-crafted items such as stuffed teddy and panda bears, colorful pillows, seasonal decorations, Florida trivets and many unique gifts. Bay Crest baked goods and lemonade can be enjoyed while listening to a band concert at 3:30. We hope you will be able to join us for a fun filled afternoon at Bay Crest, 4343 Langley Ave., just up the hill from the old chimney on Scenic Highway. Proceeds are exclusively used for resident activities.
