Brian's Lines

The final score was 23-17, and the staff lost. Max Dickson told me after the game that two factors were the keys to our loss — chronological aging and biological aging. (You had to be here Sunday night to appreciate that). I appreciate the young people being willing to play us old staff guys. And a special thanks to Shorty Ward and Bill Lee for being our officialists. And didn't we have the best cheerleaders you have ever seen? The fellowship was a fun way to end a great day as the Lord added eight more to our fellowship and we expressed our appreciation to the Senior Adults who are such a vital part of the ministry of our church.

CONGRATULATIONS. . . to Clarine Porter who was elected National Volunteer of the year by the American Cancer Society. She is not only active in that work but active in the ministry of our church. We are proud of her. Congratulations also to Sarah Andress who was selected Senior Adult of the Year at First Baptist Church.

SOME GOOD NEWS . . . I received word this morning that the July 1 publication date is set for my book, FAMOUS COUPLES OF THE BIBLE. Broadman Press, the Baptist publishing company, will publish the book. It will come out in the Broadman Reader's Plan and also as a paperback on the open market. I'll give you more details about this as I get them.

LUNCHEONS . . . Our businessmen's luncheon has been a great success thus far. We hit a high one week of 140. For the last few weeks we have been having about 80-90. We have a large number of visitors each week, but it is extremely important that a large number of our members be here also. This is a tremendous opportunity for you to bring a business associate to participate in the life of our church. It can be done in an hour. I want to encourage you men to make this a top priority every Thursday. I'll

It will follow the same format as the men's, from 12:00 to 12:45. We will have a nursery so that you ladies who do not work outside the home, can also attend if you are interested. Ladies, mark your calendars and get out the word for April 24.

THIS SUNDAY . . . I will be preaching from the beautiful story at the beginning of John 8. The sermon title is, "Does Any Man Condemn You?" Sunday night we will hear our Adult Choir present their beautiful Easter Music. I'll see you Sunday for another exciting day at First Baptist Church.

MINISTRY OF ADULTS

By JERRY SPIVEY

"LEISURE TIMERS" (Senior Adult Fellowship)

Congratulations to Sarah Andress on being elected Senior Adult of the Year — 1979 in our church. The announcement of Sarah's election inaugurates the annual presentation of the "Senior Adult of the Year" award and plaque presentation. Thank you Sarah for the time you have devoted to the Senior Adult Ministry. You are a joy to work with.

Mrs. Clarine Porter has been elected Volunteer of the Year by the Association of Community Cancer Centers. She was in Washington, D. C., March 11 to receive the award. The plaque presented to Mrs. Porter will be displayed in the lobby of our Baptist Hospital. We congratulate you Clarine for this outstanding achievement and thank you for your untiring contribution to our church and nation.

Thanks to all who made our Senior Adult Day a great success. Our senior adults are a great group of people and I consider it an honor and privilege being associated with them.

"SINGLE SPACE"

Dr. Charles E. Smith, author, counselor and conference leader, from Nashville, Tenn., has agreed to come for our "Single Living Seminar" April 20-21. Dr. Smith will deal with Personal Image, Relational Image, and Divine Image topics as relating to the Christian single. The conference will include a banquet on Friday night and breakfast Saturday morning and will conclude by noon. Total cost will be $12.50 per person which will include both meals and conference fees. Make plans to be here and bring your friends. Reservations are being taken at the Church Office.

MARRIED ADULTS

This Sunday, April 8, is "Married Adult Day" as part of our Days of Grace and Days of Glory family emphases. We hope you plan to be in church as we honor you on this special day.

ATTENTION SUNDAY SCHOOL ENVELOPES

The Sunday School envelope! What is it for? It is to record your attendance when you come, and to provide a way to give your tithe and offerings to the Lord. Every member of the church is sent a box of envelopes that contains one envelope for every Sunday. You also have a set of Together We Build envelopes for every Sunday of the year. When you come on Sunday, bring your envelope from home and turn that in. If you forget, we will have extra envelopes for you. The envelope has been for many years the most efficient and effective method of counting attendance and collecting offerings. Be sure to bring yours with you Sunday.

EASTER AND YOUR CHILD

This Easter make an effort to share the Risen Christ and God's love with your child.
Instead of giving him an Easter basket full of sugar laden candy, make his basket with him. A small book with special Easter scripture from the Bible. A special Easter egg made from a L'eggs container filled with his favorite fruit or nuts. The list could go on, but the most important things is taking the time to make these things with your child.

I look forward to seeing some of these baskets made with love.
