Brian's Lines

I am so thankful for the faithfulness of the choir during this interim period in our music ministry. They did an excellent job Sunday night and the music Sunday morning was outstanding. Continue to pray for the Music Screening Committee. We feel we are very close to finding a man as our Minister of Music.

SERMONS ON THE FAMILY . . . Sunday night is the second of the sermons on the family. I will focus on married adults with the sermon, "The Communication Crisis." The following Sunday night, April 22, is a sermon for the formerly married, "The Second Time Around." Even if you don't fit into this category, I believe that your presence on that night will enhance your understanding of this growing group in our society, the singles again. Sunday nights have been tremendous the last few weeks. I'll plan on seeing you this Sunday night.

MISSIONS NEED OUR SUPPORT . . . As we continue to push toward our goal for the Annie Armstrong mission offering, I know you will want to do your part. You need to get your offering in the next couple of weeks so we can close this out.

JOE SCOTT . . . It has been a richly rewarding experience over these last six months to know Joe personally and to listen to him play the organ. He is a unique talent and a gifted young man. I predict that God will use him in some even greater ways in the future in His work. Joe feels strongly led to get more fully involved in music ministry in the church. But he knows that to do that, he needs his seminary training. You can read his resignation elsewhere in the Builder. We are going to miss him greatly. I know that you will want to express your personal appreciation to him when you see him. And we are certainly going to miss Peggy and Jennifer as well.

FAMILY DAY . . . Mark the day on your calendar. It is May 6. What does Family Day mean? It is a day when we focus on

COME CELEBRATE THE RISEN LORD

- *** Pastor's Sunday School Class in the Auditorium for visitors and those not enrolled in Sunday School, 9:30 A.M.
- *** Special Choir music Sunday morning
- *** Easter Baptismal Service on Sunday night
- *** Middle School Choir Sunday night
- *** Hear the Pastor preach about "The Communication Crisis" in the evening service
- *** Everyone in Sunday School and Worship

our church family at First Baptist Church. How are we going to do that? We are going to visit every member of our church on that day. Why? Not because we want something. Not because we are soliciting response, but simply because we care. We will need from 200 to 250 people going out on that Sunday afternoon beginning at 2:00, to get the job done. The deacons are already committed to helping in this, but we need many more of you. You can enlist by calling the church office or by filling out the form that is available in this week's Builder. I believe that Family Day will create a stir of excitement throughout our church family. We need you to help. Young people, we want you to be involved too.

THIS SUNDAY . . . is my first Easter Sunday with you. I look forward to it with great expectation. If you have visitors for Sunday School or if you are not currently involved in Sunday School, I will be teaching a Sunday School lesson in the sanctuary at 9:30. I invite you to come and bring your friends.

DEAR FRIENDS,

In the year and a half that I have served as organist-music assistant at our church, I have had the opportunity for intimate participation in Christian ministry through church music. Not only has this experience been meaningful in itself, but it has motivated me to continue in this work at greater levels of responsibility.

At the same time, however, I have been impressed with the need for additional educational preparation in order to improve skills and gain access to a broad range of professional opportunities.

For this reason I have decided to complete what I began several years ago in obtaining a degree in church music. I will begin studies in May at The New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and therefore resign as organist-music assistant at First Baptist Church.

My last Sunday with you will be April 22.
Yours sincerely,
JOE SCOTT

ACTEEN PAPER DRIVE

The Acteens need your support in the paper drive. There is a large bin over beside the Activity Center for deposit of any paper or newspaper that you might have to donate to them. They collect all paper and then sell it to a company. They take this money and use it for the Acteen organization. Please support the Acteens and donate any paper — (newspaper, old telephone books, magazines, etc.) — that you may have.
