Brian's Lines

The music played a significant part in making Sunday a beautiful day of worship at

First Baptist Church. Bill Howell did an excellent job, the choirs were outstanding, and I thought the adult handbell ringers did a beautiful job. Many of you were out because of the Thanksgiving holidays, and I'm sorry you missed the music.

DECEMBER AND MISSIONS . . . Those two words go together with Southern Baptists, and we at First Baptist go along with it. December is a time to focus on missions. It is also a time to help finance missions through the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. I received a letter this week from Dr. Bill Tanner, Director of the Home Mission Board, congratulating our church for being among the top ten in Florida in giving to the Annie Armstrong offering for Home Missions. It is time now to give that same kind of response to our Foreign Mission Offering. Marvin and Linda Leech challenged us Sunday night. Let's respond to the challenge. Let's be a part of the bold giving that is an essential part of our Bold Mission Thrust as Florida Baptists. Our goal as a church is $25,000.

ACCEPTING HIS CHALLENGE . . . We continue toward victory. At the time I write this we have received $745,805.66 in pledges on the 1980 budget which is 86% of the total needed. Many of you have still not turned in your pledge cards. "Everyone giving" is more than a slogan. It is essential if we are to accept God's challenge for our church for the eighties. Send in your cards this week. If you have lost them, stop by the church office for another. Let's move on to victory.

OUR DEACONS . . . continue to be involved in ministry. We are expanding our deacon of the week program. These three men designated as deacons of the week each week will be involved in hospital visitation, prayer during the services, following up on new members, and visiting prospects on Sunday afternoon. Recently, when we had the Lord's Supper, twenty-two of our deacons took the Lord's Supper to about forty of our shut-ins. It was a thrilling experience for them, and a joy to the shut-ins. Continue to pray for our deacons who are under the leadership this year of Dr. Bob Wilson.

THIS SUNDAY . . . I'll continue the series on Acts Sunday morning with the sermon on the Ascended Lord. Sunday night we will focus on missions as we kick off the week of prayer for foreign missions. If you are interested in learning more about the books of the Bible, I want to invite you to come to the Sanctuary class that I teach each Sunday morning. I'll be giving an overview this week of the book of I Samuel. I'll see you here for another exciting day.

MUSIC MINISTRY

Musical Gifts

As you think about gifting loved ones and friends, consider a musical gift. A copy of BAPTIST HYMNAL, 1975, would be a welcome gift as well as sacred recordings. There are also religious books and recordings available for the young persons in your home. Your Minister of Music wishes to encourage the use of Christian music in your home. Ask him for more information.

You may want to consider a musical gift to our church. Some of our needs are the BAPTIST HYMNAL, 1975, for the Sanctuary; a new piano for a Sunday School Department, and an additional set of Handbells. We want to develop an instrumental resource center. Our church property owns two band instruments and we would like to expand our instrument list. We have some people who have played instruments in the past, but have disposed of their instruments. We would like to allow them to borrow instruments from our church to play in our instrumental ensemble. If you own a band or orchestral instrument that is gathering dust, consider giving it to your Music Ministry.

JUST FOR YOUTH

By FRANZ CORNELIUS

A WORD OF THANKS

A word of thanks to all those college parents who helped to make our college fellowship this Thanksgiving.

We had a grand time at our college Thanksgiving fellowship and I want to thank all those college parents who helped. We had over 60 college students there and fellowship was wonderful.

MISSION MINDED

My heart was blessed Sunday night when Marvin and Linda Leech spoke to us about being mission minded. I have learned to love the whole Leech family and sure hope that you get to know them too. Wasn't it good to see two of our fine young people come forward and say I'm mission minded and willing to let God have His way in my life? As your youth minister I have made a promise to God that I will help our youth through mission type activities to develop mission minds.

NEW HOPE

December 13 our youth will be in charge of the vesper services at the New Hope Rehabilitation Center. This will be a time to help others through song and testimony. Speaking of helping others, we had several young people involved in helping others this Thanksgiving. Some gave Thanksgiving meals to the needy through their Sunday School, others participated in Acteen projects to the needy.

11TH ANNUAL CHALLENGER AWARD BANQUET

Sign up now! One of the greatest opportunities to come your way is right around the corner! It's the 11th Annual Challenger Awards Banquet. The youth of First Baptist Church will have as their guests over a thousand football players for dinner! We need your help to pull this off and it will be fun and exciting for you. For $7.00 you get a great steak dinner PLUS a super quality football jersey to wear and to keep. All this for only $7.00. Get your name on this list now!
