Brian's Lines

It was a cold Sunday, but a good one. I am thankful for the fine workers and teachers who give their time and effort to our Sunday School. Keep up the good work.

OUR LADIES . . . At our last ladies luncheon we had nearly 150 ladies. We want to beat that this time. The date is February 26. We will be through by 12:45. Ladies, come on and bring your friends. . . . Men, if you can encourage the ladies that work for you to come, please do. This, and the men's luncheon every Thursday, is one of the best things we do in participating in the spiritual life of our community.

FOUNDATIONS OF FAITH . . . Do you really know what you believe? And why you believe it? I'm afraid that many of us are not as familiar with the "foundations of our faith" as we should be. That is why we have set aside the month of March as a Doctrine month. I will be preaching eight sermons during the month on the foundations of our faith. It is a time for us to look again at those elements of belief that determine the way we live for Christ. I hope that you will make a commitment to be at church for every one of these.

REVIVAL . . . The dates for our spring revival are April 13-16. Our preacher for the week is one of the best in the Convention, Dr. Jaroy Weber, formerly of the Dauphin Way Baptist Church in Mobile. Jack Gantt from Wieuca Road Baptist Church in Atlanta will be leading in the singing. We have special things planned for each evening — for the youth on Sunday night, for the children on Monday night, for the adults on Tuesday night, and for the whole family on Wednesday night. Will you begin to pray now that this might be a time of spiritual renewal in the life of our church.

THE KEY TO GROWTH . . . What is the secret to the growth of a church? I believe it is a kind of contagious enthusiasm about what we are doing. Do you have it? Are you excited about what God wants to do in your life? Are you sharing the happenings of our church with your friends and neighbors? Are you bringing visitors with you to church every week? Our continued growth and expansion is dependent upon the degree of your contagious enthusiasm. What better time than the Spring to join with us and see the things God is doing in our midst.

THIS SUNDAY . . . Sunday morning I will be preaching from the fifth chapter of Acts. Sunday night I will preach the final in the mini-series on the family. I'll see you here for another exciting day.

New Baptist Hymnals

Our church has received our first contribution toward the purchase of the New Baptist Hymnals for our Sanctuary. One of the classes in Adult VI has given money in memory of a former teacher of the class. We look forward to many such gifts. As both a reminder and an encourager, we shall keep you informed as our Hymnal Fund increases.

LADIES CHORUS —

Sunday Evening, February 24th

All ladies, high school through Senior Adults, will meet in the Choir Room Sunday evening, February 24th, at 6:00 p.m. in preparation to sing for the evening worship service. Come and join us!

THANK YOU . . .

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to all our friends for your prayers and sympathy during the illness and death of our beloved wife and mother, Mrs. H. G. (Katherine) Gray. We especially thank Dr. Harbour and Jim Kerrick. It is such a comfort to know so many people share our loss. We love you.

IDEAS FOR FAMILY NIGHTS
AT HOME

Dinner:

Before dinner, secretly place a Bible question, or riddle under each plate. During the meal ask the family member to look under their plate and answer the question or riddle. It should stimulate some interesting conversation.

Activities:

A family relay with your children will prove to be a fun time for all. Here are a few suggestions: (1) Forehead Race - with a partner, carry a balloon between foreheads to the goal and back, (2) Clothespin Relay - with clothespins placed on a clothes line, have family members run to the line, remove a clothespin with your teeth and drop it into a small bottle or glass at the starting line, (3) Balloon Broom Relay - Players "sweep" a round balloon from the start line to the goal line and then carry the balloon back to start or the end of the broom.

Devotion:

Read PHIL 2:4, "Don't just think about your own affairs, but be interested in others too, and in what they are doing." - Living Bible

Bedtime:

Insights from the day's activities can be gained if you will ask your child one of these questions when you say "good night." 1. What did God teach you today? 2. How did you show His love today? 3. If you could live today over again, what would you change? Remember to pray for specific circumstances in your child's life or in the life of others.

JUST FOR YOUTH

By FRANZ CORNELIUS

YOUTH COUNCIL IN GEAR

The youth council met this past Friday night at the home of Mary Dean Trotter for the purpose of turning ideas into worthy projects. The many ideas from past meetings were discussed and a decision was made to move on the best ideas. The council broke into smaller groups, each taking one of the ideas, and determined a method for moving into action. The ideas are good and I know our youth group will work hard to turn them into realities. When a council member calls on you to help, that's your turn to move into action. If you have not been approached by a youth council member to help, get in touch with any council member and find your place for action.

CONCERNING SWIM WEAR

Just recently I read an advertisement about the swimsuits for summer 1980. The Ad read, "The look is you so show it". The idea was the more of you that could be seen, the more you fit the fashion. All last summer I was concerned with the different fashions in our groups swimwear. This year I ask you girls to think before you buy your suits. "The look is you and you're a Christian, so show it". I'm asking you not to wear bikinis to any church outing.

WE'RE CHANGING

The expression, Prayer changes things, is true. Each time I have attended the youth Tuesday night Bible Study I have been changed for the better. We meet every other Tuesday night at someone's home. The meetings start by 7:00 p.m. and you have time to get back home for homework. Come to our next Bible Study for a change!
