Brian's Lines

This is one of our busiest seasons of the year. Be sure to watch the Builder closely to take advantage of all the opportunities for worship and service that are available to us during the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons.

SPECIAL WORSHIP FOR OUR CHILDREN

... Many programs run so smoothly week after week that little is ever said about them. One such program is our children's worship held every Sunday morning during the worship time. As I watched the children leave Sunday morning for this Children's Worship time, I was reminded of the appreciation we should have toward those who faithfully carry out this ministry each week. Those working in our Children's Worship during November are Dennis and Linda Shuman, Jackie Johnson, Linda Griffin, Linda Bourne, Jane Varner and Elsie Barrow. Thanks to some folks who are doing a great job.

ALMOST THERE . . . Your response to the pledging program has been outstanding. With pledges and expected contributions we are now past the 93% point on our 1981 budget of $983,000. Many more of you need to turn in a card and pledge to this effort. Will you do that this week? We are less than 60% on our Building Fund pledge, but since we began our Second Mile Program the actual giving to the building fund has increased. Our highest month prior to October was $11,000. In October you gave nearly $14,000 to the Building Fund. In three Sundays of November you have already given $10,500 which means we will have another unusually good month. It is imperative that we continue this generous giving during the last five weeks of the 1980 year so we can end the year on a strong financial basis. We have already begun to walk the second mile together in our giving.

FRIENDS BRINGING FRIENDS . . . How long has it been since you have brought a friend with you to church. Have you noticed how well our young people have been doing in this area? And also our single adults. The key to a growing church is that the membership is excited about what is happening, that they bring their friends to share in it. Bring a friend this Sunday.

FIRST BAPTIST AND MISSIONS . . .

Sunday marks the beginning of the Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions. The goal for our Lottie Moon offering this year is $28,000. Inflation has affected the mission field even more so than us at home.

We must give more than we ever have just to maintain the work that is already in progress. Include Lottie Moon in your Christmas giving this year.

THIS SUNDAY . . . What better way to celebrate Thanksgiving weekend than in a service of worship and praise to our God. I'll see you Sunday for another exciting day.

GRATITUDE

I am thankful for the goodness of God, who in His grace, has given us the blessings of His love, the love of family and friends, and the beauties and the provisions of this earth. I am thankful for the faithfulness of musicians who day after day offer their lives as songs of praise to our heavenly Father.

CHRISTMAS WISH LIST

If I were preparing a letter to Santa, some of the things I would ask for would include the remainder of the new BAPTIST HYMNALS for the Sanctuary, a sound system for the Choir Room, a set of Handbells, new choral risers and a piano. Jesus said, "You have not, because you ask not." I am asking, believing that God (not Santa) will provide for our needs. If you would like more information about the items on our Music Ministry Wish List, I shall be happy to talk with you.

BUSY TIMES

This past weekend was a very busy time for the Middle School Sunday School Departments. The Seventh Grade, under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Darriel White, had a great time with their progressive dinner. The Eighth Grade, under the leadership of Frank Hamilton, hosted the Middle School "Anything Goes." The gym was filled with sounds of excitement as the different teams competed during a night of fun and fellowship. Sunday morning, the Sixth Grade, under the leadership of Charles Burns and Billy Renfroe, enjoyed a grand breakfast, along with guest musicians and speakers.

SPECIAL GIFT

Wednesday, November 19, I received a special gift from the Middle School Acteens. During JOY I was given a little church filled with money. The girls collected the money to help the High School Department sponsor our mission church in Ephrata, Pennsylvania. Thank you, girls. This was truly a mission of love!

WHO SHOT J. R.?

Well, this past weekend everyone was talking about who shot J. R. Now there is a new question: who shot a six-point deer last weekend! Don't ask me, ask Jeff Dunson!

KEEP YOUR EYES ON YOUR CALENDARS

Young People, don't forget to check your calendars daily to remind you of upcoming events during this busy holiday season. Also, make it a habit to read your Builder and the Partyline on Wednesday nights during supper.
