Brian's Lines

What a thrill it was to be back home and worship again at First Baptist. The music, the fellowship, the movement of God's Spirit, the large crowds all reminded me of the strength of our church. Every week is getting better and better.

RESPONSE TO THE SERMON . . . There was unusual response to the sermon I preached Sunday night, August 9, on the family. It is the first of two sermons on the family from Colossians. I will preach the other one this Sunday night. Tapes of the sermon are available. You may order a tape by calling the church office. If you would like the two family sermons on one tape, we can arrange that for you. Of if you would like the sermon on marriage which I preached August 9 along with the sermon I preached that morning, you can order it that way. Our tape ministry is expanding and I hope you will continue to take advantage of it.

TO PENSACOLA WITH LOVE - PLUS . . . will be kicked off this week with our Day of Love in the schools. We are making plans for the family clinic which will be Wednesday nights, September 9 and 16. You'll hear more about that soon. Our work crews are prepared to go out on the Saturdays in September. On the first and third Saturdays the home repair crews will go out. On the second and fourth Saturdays the yard cleanup crews will go out. This would be a fine way for many of you to get involved. Call Andy Trammel or Frank Hamilton, or call the church office and we will get you signed up. God has given us a tremendous responsibility at First Baptist because of our location and position to minister to our city. To Pensacola With Love - Plus is simply another way in which we are trying to fulfill our responsibility. If you can't get involved in other ways, be sure to pray that God will use these efforts to meet the needs of people.

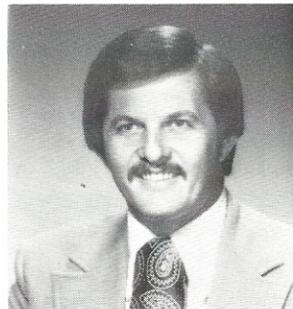

PRAY FOR ME . . . Labor Day weekend as I go to Ridgecrest to speak to more than 2000 singles who will be gathered there for a conference. I will be the Bible teacher for the conference. Pray that God might use me to speak a word of encouragement and challenge to these singles.

With the beginning of our new church year approaching, two things are top priority:

Teachers for Every Department
Training for Teachers

We still have need for teachers in the preschool and children's divisions. Please contact me if you would like to serve in either area. We also need teachers for Church Training: 2 teachers for 2's and 3's, 2 teachers for 4's and 5's, and 2 teachers for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd grades.

Our Training Clinic on August 30 and 31 (Sunday and Monday) will be most beneficial and I look forward to 100% attendance of all teachers.
Mrs. Joseph and Mrs. Plash are highly qualified and gifted teachers and want to help you become a better teacher. Let's make 1981-82 the best year ever for our children. They deserve our very best.

Please bring all your leadership materials to the Leadership Clinic:
Guides A, B, C; Preschool Leadership; Children's Leadership; etc.

BACK TO SCHOOL

Today was back-to-school for the Gulf Breeze Middle School and High School. I thought it would be interesting to be there in the High School and see how the first few moments went. I had forgotten what a tense situation this can be for many of the students, especially the frightened freshmen. "Who will be my friends?" "Do my clothes look kooky?" "How will I find all my classes; how hard is my schedule going to be; will I like my teachers?" All of these questions help to create a tense first day.

As I watched the reactions of the different young people, I realized how important friendship is. In a tense situation such as this a friend is someone to be with, to share with, someone who accepts you for who you are. It was obvious that those who had found their friends were somewhat relieved. My heart went out to the little girl who stood by the wall and nervously adjusted her clothes and quickly smiled at everyone who came by. I thought, "Boy! this is a time for a friend."

I see the need for personal growth, and I say to you, "That little girl needs a friend." This year as you return to the halls and classrooms, be like Christ. Reach out to many and know no stranger. Most of the people you will witness to this year will be your friend first before you witness to them.

BIBLE STUDY EVERY TUESDAY NIGHT

Our High School Bible studies have resumed. We meet on Tuesday at 6:30 P.M. in a different home each week. This is a perfect time to bring a friend to join us in a study of the Scripture. The schedule for September is:

Date	Home	Leader
September 1	Griffin	Mr. Griffin
September 8	Sansing	Mr. Rabold
September 15	Rogers	Mrs. Rogers
September 22	Cornelius	Rev. Beal
September 29	Smith (King Arthur Dr.)	T B A

THIS SUNDAY . . . Sunday morning I will be preaching a sermon on leadership entitled, "He's Got Charisma." Sunday night I will be preaching the final sermon on my Summer Sunday Night series on Colossians. It is entitled, "The Sufficient Family, II." I will speak on the duties of parents and children in the Christian home. I'll see you Sunday for another exciting day. God is blessing in so many ways. I don't think you can afford to miss a single Sunday.
