The First Baptist Builder

BRIAN L. HARBOUR, Ph.D., Pastor

North Palafox at Jackson Street in Downtown Pensacola

Brian's Lines

I wish everyone could have been here Sunday night to see the presentation by Greg Spivey. It was fantastic. The script, the lighting, the performance — it was all great. He brought to life the dramatic struggle of faith in the life of Abraham. I was greatly moved by it.

WORD ABOUT MY BOOK . . . There has been a delay at the publishers, I learned this week. My new book, From Cover to Cover, which was due to be out January 1, will be at the warehouse on March 7 and will probably be available in the stores by the first of April. I appreciate the interest so many of you have shown and am sorry for the delay. We will have them available here at the church around April 1.

A SPECIAL WORD OF THANKS . . . goes to Nelma Camp, my secretary. For eleven years she has been filling this position at First Baptist Church, and she has done it with poise, punctuality, and professionalism. She is more than my secretary. She is my assistant in the ministry that I have been called to perform. If you have the opportunity, please express a word of appreciation to her. We are fortunate to have her.

GOOD WORDS A B O U T SUNDAY SCHOOL . . . continue to be appropriate. Despite the uncertain weather of January, our Sunday School continued to move forward. In January, 1981, we averaged 1217 per Sunday for the month. In January 1982, we averaged 1305 for the month. For the first four months of last year we averaged 1202 in Sunday School. For the first four months of this year we have averaged 1307. The key is the meeting and planning that is going on during the Wednesday night time. One of the teachers in the Young Adult Department told me they decided to experiment with the teacher's meetings this year, and now they would not do without it! That is a good testimony to the value of such meetings. Every department in the church needs to be involved in such planning. It is essential for the continued growth of our Sunday School.

REVIVAL . . . is coming. Our hope and desire this year is to have many prospects and visitors in each of our revival services. That will happen only if you commit yourself to making it happen. On Monday night of the revival we will have a Friends Dinner. We hope that you will bring guests and prospects to that dinner and then have them here for the evening service. All of you know neighbors and friends that are not in church. They need the fellowship and opportunity for study that church provides. Let's use the revival as a time to reach them. Mark the dates: March 14 - 19. And let's continue to pray that God will truly send revival.

THIS SUNDAY . . . I will begin the four series sermons for the "Pastor's Pals" this Sunday morning. The sermon will be entitled "Young David." This will be the first week for the third through fifth grade children to fill out their notebooks. Sunday night we will have our annual Wedding Bells service where we remarry all the couples who want to participate and focus our energy on strengthening marriage. I'll see you here for another exciting day.
