

Vol. XXIX

Brian's Lines

I was overwhelmed by the response Sunday night to the call to the ministry of prayer.

Two hundred and ten people signed a card committing themselves to pray for the church for at least ten minutes a day for the next ten weeks. That is 147,000 minutes of prayer for our church these next ten weeks! Can you imagine what can happen if we follow through on these commitments to prayer? All of the things that I mentioned Sunday night will become experiences in your life and will characterize the life of our church:

1. Consecration
2. Cooperation
3. Celebration
4. Confidence
5. Companionship

Thank you for your tremendous response.

TAPES AVAILABLE . . . Mr. Lamkin tells me we have had more response to the tapes on the series on prayer than anything else I have done. These tapes are available to you. There are four cassettes (8 sermons) on the original series. Then, I have added three more sermons to that. If you would be interested in getting them for your personal use or to give to someone else, please call Mrs. Camp in the church office and she will take care of this for you.

PRINTED SERIES ON PRAYER . . . Because so many have requested it, we are going to type the entire series on prayer in a book form and put it in the library. When it is completed, you will be able to check it out just like any other book. Several of the prayer messages have been printed in the form that we use each month. To see the entire series, however, you will need to check it out of the library.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY . . . to a couple of our staff members this week. In March, three years ago, Franz Cornelius came to be a part of our staff. He began working with the children, but then we asked him to take the youth. He has given added strength to our youth program through his emphasis on a balanced program, including Bible study, recreation, fellowship, and outreach. Be sure to say a word of thanks to him. Two years ago, in March, Bill Santo came to be a part of our staff. I cannot say enough about the strong leadership he has given to the administrative program of our church. His diverse background equipped him uniquely for the position we asked him to fill. I don't know what I would do without him. We are fortunate to have him. Be sure to say a word of thanks to him as well. I want to encourage you to pray for all of us on the staff as we continue to lead our church in the direction we believe God wants us to go.
