Brian's Lines

"Sing Unto God" was a smashing success and was a fitting climax to a beautiful Lord's Day. A full house on Sunday morning, a fantastic Sunday night crowd in the rain, seven baptized, ten new members — those were some of the statistics on the day.

But what we experienced Sunday was more than statistics. It was the Spirit of God moving in our midst and creating a sweet, sweet spirit in this place. "Abundant August" is more than a slogan for a program. It is a description of what we are experiencing this last month of the summer.

AND THERE IS MORE AHEAD . . . This Sunday night Greg Spivey will be back. Last year he thrilled us with his dramatic monologue on Abraham. Now, he will be back to do Moses for us. Greg is the son of Ray and Mary Spivey, the brother of Jerry. He has committed himself to a full time ministry for the Lord. In a remarkable way he is using his God-given gifts to glorify God. I know that you will want to be here on Sunday night, August 15, to hear him. Then on Sunday night, August 22, we will focus on one of the most important areas of our church work — our ministry with children. Those dedicated leaders who work with our R.A., Acteen, and G.A. programs will be in charge of the evening service. We will be given insight into what our mission program is teaching our children. Awards will be presented and special achievements recognized. It will be another exciting Sunday night in our Abundant August.

BE PRAYING . . . about our deacon election. I met Sunday night with those men who have been nominated for deacon and have agreed to serve if elected. It is a fine group of dedicated men. Pray for God's leadership as we select the ones to fill the slots on the active deacon council this year. We are taking steps to move more in the direction of service and ministry this year in our deacons. I think we will be taking some steps that will bring us more in line with the Biblical purpose for deacons. Pray for us.

LUNCHEONS . . . In the midst of a busy summer, the weekly Businessmen's Luncheon has continued to grow. Every Thursday at 12:00 we serve a meal (for $2.00)

— those were some of the statistics on the day. But what we experienced Sunday was more than statistics. It was the Spirit of God moving in our midst and creating a sweet, sweet spirit in this place. "Abundant August" is more than a slogan for a program. It is a description of what we are experiencing this last month of the summer.

Greg Spivey — as "Moses"

This drama also has special lighting and complete music sound track, including a variety of voices to create a full-cast effect.

"Moses" serves as a reminder that great things can be done through anyone who submits their life to the Master's bidding.

and I do a twelve minute Bible Study. About 150 men gather each week for this time of fellowship and study. If you've never tried it, why don't you come this week. It is a tremendous opportunity to bring a guest and expose them to what is happening in our church. By the way, the monthly Ladies' Luncheon is doing very well, too. The Ladies' Luncheon this month will be August 24. Come, and bring someone.

BACK-TO-SCHOOL-DAYS . . . are here. Let me give you a couple of dates to mark and remember. On Sunday morning,

For the Sunday Evening Service on August 15, we will see Greg Spivey's newest one-man portrayal, "Moses." You will be inspired as you see Moses taken from his royal position in the king's court to his experience with God talking to him at the burning bush, as he becomes the leader of the children of Israel, representing them before Pharaoh, and eventually leads them out of Egypt.

As this dynamic story is unveiled, you will watch him as he parts the Red Sea, meets with God on the mountain and is given the ten commandments, then allowed the privilege of seeing the back of God Almighty. You will be greatly moved as you witness the conclusion as Moses beholds the land that was promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

August 29, we will have back-to-school day in Sunday School. We will be giving First Baptist Church bookcovers to all of our children who attend on that day. Then, on Wednesday night, September 1, we will have the Launch Day for our mid-week children's activities. I hope you will participate.

THIS SUNDAY . . . I will be continuing the series on the family on Sunday morning with a sermon: "Children: The Blessing of The Home." Sunday night we will hear Greg Spivey. Be here, for another exciting day in the Lord's house.

"SING UNTO GOD"

Thanks, College and Singles I Choir, for that inspiring performance!

THANKS!

It has been a real privilege for me to be a part of your church staff this summer. I have certainly enjoyed it and have learned a great deal. Please pray for me as I go back to school for my senior year and seek to do God's will in my life.

Respectfully,
FRANK TROTTER

The following letter was received recently and is worthy of publishing:

"Again, I would certainly like to thank you for allowing me to participate in your youth group activities Sunday, July 25th. (After Youth Tour Choir Concert). You surely have a fine bunch of youngsters to work with. Everyone was extremely helpful and that makes my job more of a pleasure rather than a chore."

Many thanks . . .
