Brian's Lines

An outstanding Sunday culminated in the beautiful service Sunday night as we ordained Jay Johnston to the Gospel ministry. Both Jay's and Jerilyn's parents were here for the special service. It was an inspirational time, and I hope you were a part of it.

WE NEED TO PRAY . . . for the Leisure Timers, under Jerry Spivey's leadership, as they take a trip this week to the World's Fair. They will be back on Sunday. We have such a fine group of senior adults in our church. And we are thankful for the outstanding direction Jerry gives to the ministry for them. Let's continue to pray for this very important group in our church.

HAVE YOU . . . made contact this month yet with someone who has been out of Sunday School for a while? That is our main emphasis during October, First Family Month. There are some in your Sunday School class that you have been missing. Why don't you give them a call? As you look around on Sunday morning in worship, you realize that some folks are missing. Why don't you check on them? Let's continue to use October as a time when we strengthen our fellowship at First Baptist.

THE GREAT CHALLENGE BANQUET . . . is just around the corner. I hope that you are planning to attend. You will be receiving a call soon to confirm your reservation. Please respond with a yes, because we want all of you to be here for this special night. Dr. Perry Sanders from Lafayette, Louisiana, will be our featured speaker. The reason for the banquet is to consider the challenge before us as we move into 1983. As an adult member of First Baptist Church, you need to be here. It is extremely significant for the future of our church.

THIS SUNDAY . . . I will continue in the series on the Bible, from peak to peak. We will be moving to the third great period of history that I call "The Rise and Fall of Israel." Sunday morning's sermon will be entitled "The Dedication of the Kingdom." Sunday night we will consider "The Division of the Kingdom." I'll see you here for another exciting day.

SINGING SENIORS . . . Welcome back from the World's Fair, etc. This Tuesday morning, October 26th, we will have a rehearsal at 11:30 a.m. This will be right before the noon monthly ladies' luncheon. Mary Jo Scarborough has put together a delightful and meaningful Christmas musical just for you. We will rehearse each Tuesday between now and Christmas, so make your plans now accordingly. Clip the rehearsal schedule below for your information.

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT . . . Literally hundreds of people are involved in the planning and preparation for our first Christmas Pageant. All choirs will be participating in the production that will be entitled "Jesus — Gift of Light." Programs will be going on in the foyer as you enter, the balcony, and on three stages in the Sanctuary. Make your plans now to attend on either December 19th or 20th.

THE SANCTUARY CHOIR will be singing for the Stewardship Banquet on October 28th. Later on in November, we will be providing a brief program for "M" Night at Olive Baptist Church for the Association. Olive's choir will sing and then we will combine choirs and sing "The Majesty and Glory of Your Name," with close to 250 voices. Don't miss "M" Night on Monday, October 22nd.

WHEN YOUR CHURCH BUILDER
DOES NOT ARRIVE BEFORE SUNDAY,
PLEASE COMPLAIN

Please call or visit your neighborhood Post Office and complain EACH TIME your paper is late. Our Builder is mailed each week in sufficient time to reach your Post Office for delivery by Friday. As a weekly newspaper, our paper is entitled to preferred Second Class mail treatment and should not be delayed by the Post Office.

Please call the Post Office or fill out a Consumer Service Card (PS Form 4314-P) each time your paper does not arrive before Sunday. The Consumer Service Card is the most effective tool our church has to remedy our delivery problems. (Simply request the form, fill it out and hand it to the window clerk as per instructions on the form.) A portion of the form is mailed to Washington, D.C., and local postal officials must respond to their superiors in writing concerning each form that is filed.

We appreciate your assistance in helping us solve our postal problems.
