Sunday was a beautiful day. The worship attendance Sunday morning in both services was very good — probably the second best of the summer. The opportunity for our boys and girls and youth in our mission organizations to be recognized for their achievement was a meaningful time during the evening worship hour. And then to conclude the day by calling David Chism as our Minister of Education highlighted the entire day. By the way, his first official day with us will be September 4.

DID YOU NOTICE . . . that the seven who joined Sunday were all single adults? There are two reasons for the upsurge among our singles. One is that we have an excellent program for singles of all ages, led by Jay Johnston and assisted by some very capable lay leadership. The second reason for the upsurge is that our singles are out visiting. They are not just talking about their concern for outreach. They are doing it. Every week they are making contact with their prospects. I am thankful for the fine leadership in our singles and want to challenge all of our departments to follow their example. The singles are demonstrating for us the truth of the old dictum: "If we go, they will come." And they are creating a buzz all over Pensacola that First Baptist Church is the singles place to be.

SPEAKING OF SINGLES . . . I had a discussion this week with one of our single fathers. He has two children and is carrying a full workload plus a reserve responsibility. He needs someone to help care for the children. If any of you would be able to help, please give me a call.

THE BIG DECISION . . . We have decided to call David Chism as our Minister of Education and we go into the Fall with a full staff. Now, the great challenge before us is to decide about the two worship services.

The Church Council has unanimously recommended that we go to two morning worship services on a permanent basis.

The deacons discussed it at length, and without opposition, recommended that we go to two worship services on a permanent basis.

One of the deacons asked me how I felt about it and was concerned about the fact that I would have to preach twice every Sunday morning. I want everyone to know how I feel on the subject. My primary concern is not whether I have to preach once on Sunday or five times. My primary concern is not feeling the strength of a packed auditorium at 11:00. My primary concern is not "presenting the right image" of our church to visitors. I believe that the way to present the right image to our visitors is to let them know we care enough about reaching people to do whatever we need to do. My primary concern is for us to reach more people for worship. And the only way for us to do that is to have two morning worship services. Our worship attendance has been pretty stable for the last three years. But this Summer, when we went to two worship services, we have averaged 200 more in worship per Sunday (during the Summer) than we did in the final seven weeks of the Spring. The facts speak for themselves. A decision to go back to one worship service would be a step backward; it would be a step which would prevent future growth; it would be a step that would force many new choir members to drop out of the choir; it would be a step taken for the sake of comfort at the cost of commitment.

We have a complete staff as we go into the Fall. Every aspect of our church program is going strong. New excitement will be generated with the beginning of the school and the development of all of our programs. I am convinced that it will not be long before we fill out both worship services. Then, we will have not one choir of a hundred members, but two choirs with a hundred members each. Then we will have not one strong worship service but two strong worship services.

I know that we are going to approve the two worship service idea. But I don't want us just to approve the idea. I want us to affirm the idea enthusiastically, strongly, even unanimously. I want this decision to be an exciting, bold step forward in the life of First Baptist Church. Will you come Sunday night ready to take this bold step forward as we seek to reach more and more people in this community for Christ? I am counting on you to do so.

THIS SUNDAY . . . will be back-to-school weekend. All of the church family needs to be involved in worship. But the focus will be on our youth. Jay Wolf from First Baptist Church in Montgomery will be here to preach in all three services. I'll be here, and I hope you will too, as we share in another exciting day of worship at First Baptist Church.

MUSIC MINISTRY

Mike Simoneaux

"UP, UP, AND AWAY!" — THE GRADED CHOIR ENLISTMENT TIME IS ALMOST HERE!!! . . . Wednesday, August 31, children, ages *4 years through fifth grade, will have the opportunity to join the Graded Choir Program for the 1983-84 church year. Mrs. Flo Minchew, coordinator, and the six choir directors, along with the many workers, have put forth a tremendous effort to bring our children a program aimed toward building within them a knowledge of the various components of music that will allow them to become natural music readers as they grow with the program each year. We encourage you to bring your child / children August 31 to the CAC and enroll them in the best Graded Choir Program ever offered.

The 4-year choir is for children who have already had their fourth birthday, or who will be 4 by September 1, 1983.*

PARENTS OF GRADED CHOIR CHILDREN — Please make a note on your calendar that on September 7 Mrs. Minchew is going to meet in the Cellar area with you to explain the concept of this year's Graded Choir Program. It will be to your advantage to attend this meeting at 4:45 while your children are in choir.

THE First Place For Singles

A GREAT DAY!

Pensacola, Florida

The Lord blessed us with a great Sunday. We had seven single adults join the fellowship of First Baptist by letter and baptism. We had a great blessing from the Single Adults of Second Baptist, College Park, Georgia, as their choir shared with us. Let's continue to pray and reach people each day for the Kingdom of our Lord Jesus. Remember to be an encourager.
