Brian's Lines

The bad weather came in the afternoon, but the crowds were still good all day. The eleven o'clock service on Sunday morning was especially strong. A special word of thanks goes to all of our choir leaders for the beautiful program presented Sunday night and for the outstanding work they do with our children throughout the year.

THE TRIP TO ECUADOR . . . is full now. Frank and Bernice Osborne will be going with David and Melissa Chism for the partnership evangelism trip this Summer. We will be giving you more information as they get closer to the event.

BETH PUCKETT . . . is the co-chairman of the Hostess Committee this year. I neglected to mention her in giving thanks for the fine preparations for the all-church fellowship last week.

I APPRECIATE YOUR GREAT RESPONSE . . . to the sermon on death. It is most certainly an appropriate subject for us to deal with, and the Bible speaks some encouraging words concerning it. The sermon on death will be available in printed form in the Library. You may also get a copy of it through the tape ministry. After the fourth sermon on the parables of Jesus this Sunday, this four-sermon series will be available in a nice set through our tape ministry. You may call Nelma Camp, my secretary, to check on that.

I HAVE ASKED MIKE . . . to use the high school choir as the service choir in the 8:15 worship service during the month of March (except for Revival Sunday, March 17). Having the adult choir sing together in the second service has alleviated a problem that was surfacing, the gradual drift to the early morning service. This was creating some real problems in the 11:00 service. The shift has solved the problem, but has brought up some other problems that we are seeking to deal with. I appreciate your continued patience, your prayers, and your support as we try to give the proper balance to our morning worship services.

THE REVIVAL IS COMING SOON . . . Pray for Dr. Pleitz and Dan Beam. Plan to come for all the services March 17-20. Arrange to bring some friends with you. Let's make this a great time of spiritual renewal for our church.

Theme: Who Cares?

Scripture: I John 3:18 TEV

Annie Armstrong Easter Offering

"Who Cares?" is the theme for the 1985 Week of Prayer for Home Missions, March 3-10. The Scripture, "My children, our love should not be just words and talk, it must be true love which shows itself in action" (I John 3:18, TEV), will challenge all Southern Baptists to pray and give to the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering. The national goal is $30 million and our goal at First Baptist is $18,500. Let us bind our hearts together in prayer for:

OUR HOME MISSION BOARD

William Tanner, President

OUR HOME MISSIONARIES

Their ministries

Our opportunity to give financially.

"Who Cares?" Because God's answer is "I Care," our answer can be no different.

HIGH SCHOOL CHOIR — Set your clocks early this Sunday as we will sing for the 8:15 service. Let's follow our terrific rehearsal this last week with the same terrific group Sunday morning. Our new rehearsal time worked great. SEE YOU SUNDAY MORNING AT 7:45 A.M.

GRADED CHOIRS — I want to thank all Graded Choir leaders, workers, accompanists, parents and friends who made Sunday night such a special time. Remember that on Wednesday night, March 6, we have tryouts for speaking parts in our new musical. If your child reads and is interested in trying out for this part of the musical, which will be presented in the Spring, please have him / her in the Adult Choir Room that Wednesday, March 6, at 4:45. Graded Choir rehearsals will resume March 13 at the regular time — 4:45.

SANCTUARY CHOIR — (Don't forget our contest).
