Brian's Lines

The Disciple Now Weekend came to a powerful conclusion in our service Sunday night. I am thankful for all of the parents who helped with the weekend, and we rejoice in the decisions that were made. I believe that one of the long-term benefits of the weekend will be the new relationships that have been developed among our young people.

CONGRATULATIONS . . . to Bill Santo for completing five years as Assistant Pastor at First Baptist Church. His background gave him experience in almost every dimension of church life and I felt that would equip him perfectly for what we wanted him to do in our church. That has proven true, and I am thankful to the Lord for sending Bill our way. He provides strength to the organization of our church, and is a committed fellow worker. Thanks, Bill, for five outstanding years.

CONGRATULATIONS . . . to Dot Walker for completing four years as our Minister to Children. These have been years of growth and development in our ministry to children. Dot has led to the improvement of our facilities for children, has strengthened the organization of our children's ministry, and has led in a time of growth in both the pre-school and children area. She is a vital part of our staff team. Thanks, Dot, for four outstanding years.

THE REVIVAL . . . is upon us. We should be praying daily for Jim Pleitz and Dan Beam as they come to lead us. We should be spreading the word about it. We should be inviting friends to come with us. We should be making plans to attend ourselves. We should be praying that God will enable us to reach many people for Christ during this time. The dates are March 17-20. Details about the meetings can be found on the front page of this Builder. Let's pray together for a great week of revival.

THIS SUNDAY . . . I will begin a three-sermon series on the book of Amos this Sunday morning. Sunday evening we will have baptism, and I will preach a sermon on Romans 8. I'll see you here for another exciting day.

ANNIE ARMSTRONG EASTER OFFERING

Carolyn Weatherford, executive director of WMU, SBC, says: "A contrast that constantly haunts me, is the fact that one year the government of a Moslem country allocated $50 million for mission work to preach the Islamic faith in the United States. But 14 million of us who are Southern Baptists, who know the Lord, are struggling so hard to reach the goal in 1985 of $30 million. AND WE KNOW THE LORD.

Our church goal: $18,500. PLAN, PRAY, GIVE TO SHOW YOU CARE.
