Brian's Lines

We missed our young people Sunday morning, but the attendance at the morning worship services was still strong. We had a youth group from a church in Bowling Green who visited with us. And we had many new visitors from our own city who came to see what God is up to at First Baptist Church. Next Sunday will help us close out the second month of the summer, and it has been a good summer in every way.

Thank you for your faithfulness in attendance and for the excitement you are exhibiting about our church.

LET US REMEMBER TO PRAY . . . for the Chisms and the Osbornes as they carry out their assignment in Ecuador. They are excited about the opportunity. But they will be facing situations each day which they have not been able to prepare for. So let's remember to pray for them each day that they will feel the Lord's direction and leadership. We'll hear about their trip on Sunday night, August 25.

I SO ENJOYED THE MUSIC SUNDAY . . . Lynne and Mike did such a good job as they always do. Mike was playing in Patty's absence. And it is always good to hear Mark Markham when he is home. I was also blessed with the singing of Candy Cornelius in the evening service. Charles did a superb job of accompanying her. Musically, it was a great day.

I MET AGAIN ON SUNDAY AFTERNOON . . . with a group of people whose advice I solicit as we think about the future of the church. This group is praying together and talking together to discern God's direction for our future. Two Sunday Schools or the construction of new space, a chapel or an education building or both — these are the ideas that we are discussing. I will work with this group until we reach a consensus of a general direction in which to go. At that time, I will work with the deacon chairman to appoint the appropriate committees. These committees will then research the matter in greater depth, develop a specific plan, and present that plan to the church. We are merely at the discussion stage at this point, but this is a very important matter. It will determine the shape and direction of our ministry to the end of the century. Will you please make this group — I'm referring to them as our Dream Team — as an item on your prayer list. And if you have any
