Brian's Lines

The first day of the revival in Sylacauga went well. Several decisions were made in each service. There are a lot of Pensacola connections with Sylacauga. I met several families that were former members of First Baptist Church, Pensacola. Bud and Virginia Lovell were visiting their family and were at church Sunday morning in Sylacauga. Thanks for your prayers for me during the revival.

LET ME MAKE A SPECIAL REQUEST

. . . Please pray especially for the staff during this time of transition. Whenever a pastor leaves it affects the staff in ways you don't even realize. Each staff member has to carry an extra load. The absence of a pastor prevents a unified effort at times, so they need your special prayers. Write down each of their names on your prayer list and pray for them daily.

AND ALSO REMEMBER TO PRAY FOR

US . . . Everything has fallen into place at the other end of our move. Many details need to be taken care of here. Primary on the list is the need to sell our house. Pray for me especially as I prepare the messages for the last Sunday.

THIS SUNDAY . . . Dr. C. C. Randall will be preaching for us in all services. He was the pastor at First Baptist Church at Tuscaloosa before going to the New Orleans Baptist Seminary.

New Testaments For Scripture Distribution Are Marked For Soul Winning

The GOOD NEWS AMERICA, GOD LOVES YOU New Testaments are marked in such a way that unsaved persons can follow the simple directions with the survey team present or in private reading and find the way to be saved.

The introductory page directs the reader to understand their need for salvation, then follows with instructions in how to use the New Testament. The reader begins with Romans 3:23 and follows through a series of seven scriptures before turning to the pages containing a sinner's prayer and appropriate follow-through steps.

Volunteers will be needed for the local distribution on October 27. Call David Chism or Sue Pierce at the church office if you can help.

LEISURE TIMERS CHORUS TIME CHANGE — We are returning to our former rehearsal time for Leisure Timers Chorus, which will now be Tuesdays at 12:30 P.M., following the WMU and Ladies Luncheon and Leisure Timers meetings. Rehearsals will take place in the Choir Room.

HIGH SCHOOL CHOIR HAYRIDE will be November 2nd.

MALE CHORUS THIS SUNDAY NIGHT — Meet in Choir Room at 5:45 for a brief rehearsal before services.

HANDBELLS ARE RINGING — We are so pleased with the turnout for Middle School Handbells this past Wednesday. We could use a few more ringers in Middle School and High School Handbells. High School Handbells meet Sunday afternoon at 4:00, just before High School Choir.

THANK YOU, SANCTUARY CHOIR, for another great turnout this last Sunday and a special word of appreciation to Bill Santo for the moving and inspirational narration to Beulah Land.

THE COMMITMENT OF GRATITUDE

Psalm 116

In Psalm 116 the grateful psalmist sang, "Gracious is the Lord, and righteous; yea, our God is merciful." So overcome was the psalmist with God's goodness that he asked, "What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me?"

We cannot be certain, but there is reason to believe that the psalm was written by King Hezekiah following his recovery from the illness referred to in Isaiah 38. The words seem to express the king's gratitude: "The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell got hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow." The recovered king wrote, "For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling."

Out of deepest gratitude the king expressed his commitment to God, a commitment of obedience and service.

The psalmist asked, "What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me?" (v. 12). He had already answered his question in part.

Economic crises and pressures will continue to test Christians' commitment of gratitude. In days of rising inflation it may become necessary for some families to cut back. If such should be necessary with you, where will your cutting be—in your family's life style or in your gifts to your church?

Evangelist Hyman Appleman tells of a visit to his home made by his Jewish father to plead with him to return to the family and the Jewish faith. His plea expressed all the love of a parent's heart. But Appleman explains that as his father pled, he could see a hill, and on the hill a cross, and on the cross a Savior. Said the evangelist, "As I saw the sufferings of my Savior I could not go back. My sacrifice was great, but nothing compared to his sacrifice for me."

THE COMMITMENT OF GRATITUDE! When one "counts his blessings," can he give less than his best? The beloved Dr. Frank Leavell whispered on his deathbed, "I wish I could have done more for the Master."

MINISTERING TO THE HOMEBOUND

The Homebound Ministry of First Baptist Church provides contact with our church for dozens of our members who are confined to their homes. The ministry is directed by Mrs. Margaret Allen and a number of church members serve as visitors in the ministry. Homebound visitors visit one or more homebound persons at least once each month. For some of the homebound, this is the only visit they receive in a month. All of the members of our Homebound Department eagerly anticipate the visits from their visitors. We are grateful to Mrs. Allen and all those who visit as part of this ministry.

If you would like to visit some of our homebound members, either on a regular basis or on a one-time basis, please call the church office, and we'll be glad to give you the name of one of these fine people.

FBC PRAYER MINISTRY

"I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; for kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty." (1 Timothy 2:1-2)

Paul exhorts us to pray for those in authority over us. As we have seen our President have to deal once again with terrorists and to make crucial decisions, we have been reminded of the burden of his office. In referring to intercessory prayers for leaders, Paul later says, "For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour." Let's remember to pray daily for the leaders in our nation to seek God's direction and wisdom in far-reaching decisions.
