David Chism Day – High Attendance Day – Graded Choir Musical

GUEST PREACHER

REV. GEORGE S. LOZUK

Reverend George S. Lozuk, associate to the area director for Western South America since April, 1985, will preach Sunday morning. Reverend Lozuk is stationed in Quito, Ecuador, where he acts as a liaison between missionaries in Western South America and the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. His various assignments since he was appointed in May, 1956, have involved him in general evangelism, radio and television, pastoral duties and teaching. Until 1982 Reverend Lozuk was stationed in Venezuela. Having lived and worked in the city where David, Melissa, Kara and Blake Chism will eventually live, Quito, Ecuador, after going through orientation and language studies, Reverend Lozuk will be able to bring to us during his message Sunday morning first-hand information about the work of foreign missions there.

Pray for Reverend Lozuk as he comes to speak to the church family and for the Chisms as they make final preparations for their departure from Pensacola to Rockville, Virginia, the second week of June.

Sunday Evening Worship Service – 6:15 P.M.
The Combined Graded Choirs of the First Baptist Church Present

Plan to attend and invite relatives and friends. This children's musical will delight the youngest to the oldest.

MUSIC MINISTRY

Mike Simoneaux

GRADED CHOIR MUSICAL SUNDAY EVENING, MAY 18 — 6:15 P.M. — These children have worked on the musical, "Down By the Creekbank," for several months now and it promises to be an exciting program of music, featuring soloists and special set design. You should invite your neighborhood children to this entertaining children's cantata which carries a strong Christian message that can be understood by the youngest and enjoyed by every age!

PARENTS, DON'T FORGET THE SPECIAL DRESS / VIDEO REHEARSAL THIS SATURDAY AT 9:00 A.M. IN THE SANCTUARY.

THE GRADED CHOIR END-OF-THE-YEAR PARTY IS WEDNESDAY, MAY 21, during regular choir rehearsal time.

MIDDLE SCHOOL CHOIR MEMBERS who are working on their musical are reminded about their lock-in on May 23 and 24, at the CAC. Lock-in begins at 5:00 P.M. Friday and ends Saturday at noon.

CONGRATULATIONS TO MRS. DEBBIE MANN, recent winner of the Helen Jemison van Aken Award, given by Mobile Opera Guild for outstanding service to Mobile Opera. This includes a scholarship for furthering Debbie's musical studies.

HIGH ATTENDANCE DAY — 150 in choir this Sunday morning. . . . Can we do it? A resounding yes! Choir members and section leaders have been contacting choir members all this week. Members met last Tuesday for "Visit Like Crazy for Choir for One Night" night and contacted many folks. Remember that no one can take your place. YOU are needed.

SAMARITANS HANDS

Our culture tells us that power is domination, control over others. Power is "hoarding" and "holding on to," as if it could be measured. Power is playing God — having all the right answers, presenting an all-powerful, all-knowing image.

Jesus presents a different image of power: the towel and a basin of water. Seems silly, doesn't it? What kind of power is that? That's exactly what Jesus' disciples thought. As Jesus neared the end of His earthly life, His disciples believed He was waiting for just the right moment to assert His power and assume religious and political leadership. The disciples were sure Jesus was the right man to overthrow the Romans. After all, hadn't He walked on water, changed the water into wine, and made the blind see? What a great King he'd make! What power!

But at the Last Supper, with His motley crew of disciples gathered around, Jesus picked up a towel and a basin of water and started washing the feet of the disciples. They were stunned. This was mighty strange behavior for a King. Jesus wasn't just washing the dirt from their feet. He was washing away their crippling concepts of power. He was demonstrating power in the form of servanthood, power in the towel and basin of water.

What does the towel and water look like today? When Jesus returns, He's not going to check titles, bank accounts, or the height of our steeples. He's going to check towels. There's a towel out there with each of our names on it. To pick up that towel is to step with power into a hurting world. The real name for power is compassion. Christ is the divine manifestation of compassionate power. He didn't come to rule but to serve.

— Taken from SEEDS, May 1986

When you stoop to wash grubby feet, you're already in the posture to worship the King!

SAMARITANS CLOSET — The clothing closet is almost completed with shelves and hangers! We will be ready to receive your donations of clothing very soon. Please be sure all clothing is CLEAN, USABLE, and SIZED!

PULPIT COMMITTEE REPORT

We are continuing to trust the Lord to lead us in the right direction in our search. It has been and still is our desire to call God's designee to preach His word, equip the believers for service, and shepherd His church. We, as a congregation, must continue in a spirit of prayer for God's will to be done.

We should pray especially for Joe Napier as he directs the committee's work. We must also thank the Lord for His marvelous provision for us in the interim. Let's keep the faith.

FBC PRAYER MINISTRY

"Father, FORGIVE them, for they do not know what they do."

(Luke 23:24)

As Jesus uttered this prayer He taught us a mighty lesson. To be gracious and forgiving is a measure of greatness and character; more importantly, it is one of the marks of a Christian. When the need for forgiveness arises, do others see Jesus in us?

DOT WALKER'S SON PUBLISHES BOOK

Rev. Scott Walker, pastor of FBC, Monroe, N.C., has written "Where The Rivers Flow," an autobiography he calls a "narrative theology," to show how faith grows and changes over the course of a lifetime, especially how it evolves from a childhood acceptance of God to a maturing Christian commitment. Scott takes you through some of his lifetime experiences, from the time he realized "Reindeer Can't Fly" (the title of Chapter 1), up to "Five Rivers of Living Water," a journey of understanding the place Jesus must have in our lives as we mature in Him. The book is available in our church library. Excellent!
