

The First Baptist Builder

Cecil W. Seagle, Pastor
North Palafox at Jackson Street
IN OUR 140TH YEAR OF WORSHIP

Vol. XXXIV

December 31, 1986

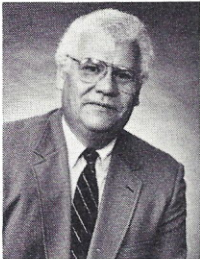

No. 1

The Seagle Say:

'86 IS HISTORY . . .

We can never go back or live it over again.
What we did is done!

THE GOOD NEWS . . .

is that '87 rests on the horizon of our lives like an uncharted sea.

- no mistakes have been made!
- no hurts have been experienced!
- no problems have been encountered! Exciting, isn't it!

'87 IS FILLED . . .

with hope and Divine promise. I fully believe it to be a grand and wonderful year. '87 will see us:

- complete our staff;
- renovate and refurnish our educational space;
- complete the Committee For The Future study and adopt a dynamic program of advance toward the year 2000.

CHARGED UP . . .

best describes my feelings. The drama, sense of expectation, togetherness - all point to our very best year. I have no doubt that '87 will become all that and more!

MY APPEAL . . .

is simple. Will you join me in:

- 1. Weekly meeting our financial needs? We must not lag behind. Kingdom causes rise or fall on our commitment to the financial base.
- 2. Consistently inviting the lost and unchurched folk around you to worship and study with you?
- 3. Daily pray that our Father would keep us together, unified in direction, spirit and grace? I know you will!

LOOK OUT . . .

'87, here we come full steam ahead. It's pure joy to be a part of the Friendly Family of First Baptist Church.

1400 in Sunday School Sunday - all for Him.

CATCH THE VISION!

GROUP LEADER TRAINING

3 Sessions

JANUARY 4, 11 and 18

5:00 P.M. IN THE DINING HALL

Leaders: Rodney and Patty Taylor

Our Church Training Program is sponsoring a Leader Training class for Group Leaders. The objective of the class is to better equip these leaders for their ministry. All group leaders and others who function in caring roles are encouraged to participate in this study.

TRAIN FOR EXCELLENCE

FRIENDS OF AL AND PAT FORD

If you would like to send a handwritten note (no gifts, please) to Al and Pat Ford, Peggie and I will be glad to deliver it personally to them when we are visiting in Kyoto January 19 - 21. We must have them by Sunday, January 11, in order to pack them in our luggage.

CECIL W. SEAGLE

WILL YOU HELP?

One of the on-going ministries of our church that few members are aware of is the Van Ministry. Every Sunday morning a van picks up several members of our Silent Class and several elderly persons who cannot get to church any other way. It's a real blessing to see the smiles and "thank you's" they pass your way.

You can be a part of this valuable ministry by volunteering to drive the van. At this point this would require you to drive once every six weeks. It's a small gift of time but so very appreciated by those who receive it. To volunteer or for further information call the church office or Joe Kelly, 477-0534.
