

The First Baptist Builder

Cecil W. Seagle, Pastor
North Palafox at Jackson Street
IN OUR 140TH YEAR OF WORSHIP

Vol. XXXIV

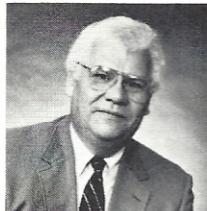

February 4, 1987

No. 6

The Seagle Say:

SCHOOL OF EVANGELISM . . .

our first training effort in a while has gotten off to a roaring good start. About sixty (60) of our folk spent more than nine hours up-dating their skills in sharing their faith.

MONDAY EVENING . . .

was a fantastic experience. At least three (3) people prayed to receive Christ while a host of additional needs and possibilities were uncovered. The entire group left in victory as victory after victory was being reaped.

A SECOND SCHOOL . . .

of Evangelism will be scheduled in the fall. If you missed this one, be sure you get in on the next one.

There is something we can all do. Develop a keener sensitivity to those around you. Invite them to come share the joy of the Friendly Family of First Baptist Church. Those of us who lead in worship will do all we know how to be sure we introduce them to our Lord.

FINANCES . . .

are already a problem. Folks, we have a $24,740.00 deficit after only four weeks of the new church year. That's $6,185.00 per week.

I'm committed to all that God's doing at, in and through First Baptist Church. The truth is, we will not be able to maintain ministry without weekly support.

My appeal is both simple and personal. We must meet the financial challenge of ongoing needs. A faithful people abiding — doing God's business God's way is essential.

Tell you what — let's eliminate the deficit this week — O.K.?

OUR FAMILY PRAYING

"Praise ye the Lord: for it is good to sing praises unto our God; for it is pleasant; and praise is comely." (Psalm 147:1)

Have you noticed that praising God is a great spiritual and physical lift? Allowing our hearts and voices to sing God's praises can do much to dispel despair and raise our spirits.

Psalms 146-150 are full of reminders of the merits of praising the Lord. In fact, 147:1 declares such praise is even "comely."

Let's make praise an important part of our prayers, praising God's faithfulness. His "binding the wounds of the brokenhearted," His greatness, His "infinite understanding," and His wonderful mercy.

SCOUT SUNDAY FEBRUARY 8

Sunday we are observing a very special part of our youth activities. Our Troop 10 has been a continuous charter since May 27, 1927; sixty years of pride and history. We are the oldest registered troop in this district and one of the oldest in the United States. We salute all scouters, active and inactive, who have taken time to be dedicated in serving God and Country. A special recognition goes to three young men who have just earned the highest rank in scouting — the Eagle. They are Paul Hughes, Denny Wilson and Judd Wilson. Scoutmaster for this troop is Frank Hamilton.
