The Seagle Say:

TELEVISION MINISTRY . . .

No subject elicits more conversation today than that of the television ministry.

First Baptist has launched a ministry to Pensacola by way of television.

I've seen the first two programs. They feature, as will others, the music and message of our regular worship service. Both programs have been well done and are being positively received.

THE OBVIOUS . . .

question is why would we do this with such great ministries already on T.V. We have readily available:

— Dr. Ben Haden — an outstanding communicator — Pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Chattanooga, Tennessee — and

— Dr. Charles Stanley — Pastor of First Baptist Atlanta;

— Dr. D. James Kennedy, great preacher and pastor of Coral Ridge Presbyterian Church near Ft. Lauderdale — and on I could go.

Question: Why add us to the list? There's a simple, honest, direct answer. All of these and more may speak to us and minister God's word, but they cannot put the "flesh and blood" of physical presence so vital to Pensacola. They all live far away from us. The sum total of our television commitment during my ministry is to Pensacola.

LOCATED IN . . .

our City are:

— 60,000 to 100,000 unsaved and unchurched people. Some of them will flip a dial, hear the music or message or both and will call or come and find Jesus Christ.

— Multiplied hundreds of home-bound — some of whom belong to this family of faith. They cannot attend. They will be able to see and share by way of television, with their beloved family of faith. Four or five of them have shared already their joy in this new ministry.

— Visitors from across our land come to our white sands and beautiful beaches. Some who need a word from God will be blessed because they saw and heard.

I'M VITALLY . . .

and deeply concerned that Pensacola's First Baptist family assume tremendous responsibility for the spiritual well-being of our City. Your enthusiastic support of this new

CHURCH-WIDE FELLOWSHIP

Sunday Night, June 28

Following the Worship Service.

Honoring Steve Findley and Susan Edwards.

This is a time for "The Friendly Family of First Baptist" to welcome Steve home from the mission field. We will have an opportunity to meet Steve's fiancee, Susan Edwards, who has been a journeyman also. You will not want to miss this sweet fellowship. "Offer hospitality one to another." (1 Peter 4:8)

OUR CHURCH FAMILY

Notes of Thanks:

A note of thanks to the staff and church family has been received in the church office from the McArthur family for the kind expressions of sympathy in the recent death of Mrs. Elma McArthur. Eddie and Jacki Benton have written a card of thanks to the church family for the prayer, visits, gifts, calls and support which carried them through "some pretty rough times" while Whitney was in the hospital.

Congratulations To:

Andy Stoesen, son of Alexander and grandson of Mrs. Laura Stoesen, who was graduated from the College of Arts and Sciences in Washington, D.C., as one of four literature majors who will receive an award for "exceptional scholarly merit in literary studies."

Eugene "Gene" Gay for 30 years of service as a public school teacher in the Escambia County School system. Others in FBC retiring from teaching are Betty Butler, Betty Mott, Martha Folmar and Marion Livingston.
