PROCEDURE FOR NOMINATING DEACONS 1987

The committee for the Nomination of Deacons requests that every member of the church suggest men who should be considered by the committee for nomination as deacons. You may suggest as many as you think qualify.

These suggestions must reach the committee before Wednesday, July 15. They may be given to any member of the committee, mailed to the church office in care of the committee or dropped in the offering plate. Suggestions are to be submitted only by members of the First Baptist Church, and therefore must be signed to be accepted.

Your committee, selected for the purpose of recommending to the church the best qualified persons, requests that you read the Scripture passages below and suggest the names of as many men as you believe to be qualified to serve as deacons. According to the policy of the church, inactive deacons will not be placed on the ballot unless suggested by one or more members of the church.

SELECTION OF FIRST DEACONS

“And in those days, when the number of disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministrations. Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, ‘It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables. Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.’” (Acts 6: 1-4, KJV)

THE CHARACTER AND QUALIFICATIONS OF ALL DEACONS

“Likewise must the deacons be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre; Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless. Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things. Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. For they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.” (I Timothy 3:8-13, KJV)

We urge you to be much in prayer that we as a church may know God’s will in this all-important task.

The vote by the church membership on the nominations recommended by the committee will be announced later.

THANK YOU SANCTUARY CHOIR . . . For continuing to minister to us in our worship period! Whether you're singing a gospel-oriented piece, a contemporary anthem, or an outright classical work, you consistently do it as an offering raised unto God. I thank God for your dedication and commitment to excellence; certainly the one about whom we sing -- Jesus Christ -- causes us to strive incessantly toward perfect praises to Him. May others in our fellowship sense the warmest of invitations to join us in this quest. This Wednesday at 7:00 is a great "first rehearsal;" hope to see your "new face" in choir!

ATTENTION ALL TOUR '87 PARTICIPANTS! This Sunday, June 28, is the due date for your second installment of $35.00; or, if you would like, you may pay the entire balance of $65.00 for the guys, and $75.00 for the gals. Remember, make your check out to First Baptist Church. DON'T FORGET THIS! WE NEED THIS TO MEET SOME TOUR FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS THAT HAVE TO BE PAID IN ADVANCE! CHAPEL SINGERS, LED BY LYNNE LAUDERDALE, WERE SUPER LAST SUNDAY! Their obvious hard work really paid off . . . and is appreciated. This group, like our Adult Ensemble, will now be enjoying a brief summer break until auditions crank up both groups again in September.

The Seagle Say:

SBC ANALYSIS

25,607 Southern Baptists gathered in St. Louis. The last thing any of us should expect is for 25,607 Baptists to agree on anything! Of course we did not. I would like my impressions / analysis to focus on several key items:

I. ATMOSPHERE

Peggie and I have not been to SBC meetings in three or four years. I went expecting the worst. The truth is, I was pleasantly surprised with the relative calm that pervaded the gathering. I am not unaware of all the implications and whispered reasonings — certain groups boycotted, etc. I have good friends on every side of the issue. They were all present for the convention. My point, the convention was not an embarrassment to Christ, Southern Baptists and His Kingdom, nor was it quiet because of boycott.

II. PEACE COMMITTEE REPORT

I do not share the conviction that delaying a vote for one year would have been wise. The committee chairman, Dr. Charles Fuller, reflected what I think is a mature and honest response when he indicated they had done their best and had presented the best report possible.

Some would say we rushed the decision. I don't think so. Like all Southern Baptists I had read most of the report in bits and pieces over the past two years. The only new information was the recommendation section. We had more than twelve hours to reflect upon and absorb the material.

Some say the implications are frightening. They talk about rigid creedalism, seminary firing, etc., etc. I'm not foolish enough to comment on what could or might take place. Trustees of the various schools and institutions will have to lead. They are legally responsible for setting direction. Only time will reveal the accuracy or inaccuracy of the rumors and fears.

III. THE PEACE COMMITTEE . . .

summarizes the dilemma clearly and accurately. I quote: "There is but one way for us to survive as a denomination. It involves the recognition of some basic facts, among them are these:

- 1. Changes are now taking place in the leadership of many Southern Baptist Convention boards.
- 2. These changes will impact these boards and agencies for years to come.
- 3. The role of many who have exercised leadership in the past will change as colleagues of different persuasions will fill leadership roles.
- 4. This change will mean that some who have been in general agreement with convention programs in the past will have less involvement, while those who previously have had difficulty in agreeing with certain convention programs will have more involvement.
- 5. We have seen changes in Southern Baptist life in the past and we will see changes in the future. The important issue is that we must continue to be faithful stewards of the opportunities God has given Southern Baptists."

IV. HOW WILL WE . . .

respond? Better still, let me suggest a five (5)-fold response! We will respond:

- 1. With Maturity!

There must not be a shrill, accusing, or rumor-oriented response by me or you. We will respond with maturity.

- 2. With Integrity!

Parties and personalities while respected are not to be followed blindly. I will reserve the right to think for myself, ask bold, penetrating questions and refrain from additional polarization. "To get along - go along" may be politically wise, but it isn't biblical. No party — or either side — deserves blind loyalty.

- 3. With Charity!

We will treat all folk with charity, kindness and love. We will think the best until the worst is proven. We will not succumb to the rumor-mill.

- 4. Without Prejudice!

There are people of great magnitude and ability on all sides of the issue. We will reserve the right to hear from them without prejudice.

I'm not oblivious to the pressure all feel. I hear new and conciliatory language from leaders on all sides. I hope and trust a new day of trust will soon emerge. I caution all of us at the point of fellowship. I will not follow the angry on either side — no matter their present or prior position. Angry people attract angry followers. We do not need that, and I would caution against it.

I urge you to join me in service in and through the First Baptist Church family. We must begin in our own Jerusalem. I urge you to see the value of the world's greatest missionary enterprise. We must work to see that it remains intact while we struggle with those issues that separate us.

I came home more convinced than ever that our basic division primarily is political / power struggle — not solely doctrinal. There are doctrinal differences among our leaders — yes, no doubt about it — but doctrinal differences is not the heart of our struggle. It fuels the debate — but the conversations in all areas revolve around who's going to lead.

I came home aware of division but with much hope in my heart for resolution — not soon, not quickly, but maybe . . . someday.

I'm grateful to be your pastor. We will continue as His people to serve where possible and to contribute to a missionary endeavor that is world-wide in scope. I haven't said all I feel — but I've said enough!

SEE YOU 1400 STRONG SUNDAY.

1987 Southern Baptist Convention Report

1987 - '88 ELECTED LEADERSHIP

President.....	ADRIAN ROGERS, Memphis, Tennessee
First Vice-President.....	JACK STANTON, Bolivar, Missouri
Second Vice-President.....	VICTOR KANUBBE, Arizona

OVERVIEW OF SBC ACTION AND INFORMATION

- 1. Foreign Mission Board Report Included.

- 3759 Missionaries are now under appointment.
- 20 new churches per week are being started.
- A 17 percent increase in baptisms was reported world-wide.
- An excellent, warm and positive report by Dr. Keith Parks.

- 2. Peace Committee Report.

- The Florida Baptist Witness will carry the complete report.
- Some see the adoption of the report as a major item in St. Louis.
- Messengers received the report Tuesday morning and adopted it late Tuesday evening — around 9:40 P.M.
- All materials had been printed in state papers with the exception of the ten (10) recommendations.
- The report was approved overwhelmingly by the messengers.

- 3. Home Mission Board Report.

- Introduced a new Home Mission Board president — Dr. Larry Lewis.
- No new or startling issues brought.
- Dr. Lewis was sharply questioned concerning the Home Mission Board trustee action relating to no aid to women serving as pastors in pioneer work where supplemental salary aid is shared.

- 4. Dr. Billy Graham

- A stirring address to a packed convention hall.
- The humility, wisdom, passion and call of Dr. Graham stands in sharp contrast to many of the tele-evangelists.
- His call to Southern Baptists was a call to revival, renewal and a recommitment to Bold Mission Thrust.

- 5. Resolutions and Motions.

- They were numerous and varied.
- They dealt with credibility in stewardship, abortion, AIDS, etc.
- Among the most important was an amendment disassociating Southern Baptists from PTL. The last thing Southern Baptists need is to be linked with the continuing scandal of PTL.

- 6. Institutions and Agencies.

- All six (6) seminaries were heard from.
- The American Bible Society; the Stewardship Commission; Brotherhood; WMU; Sunday School Board; Executive Committee; Historical Commission; Education Commission; Christian Life Commission; Southern Baptist Foundation; Planned Growth and Giving; Baptist Joint Committee on Public Affairs and the Baptist World Alliance all brought reports.
- Messengers were permitted to ask questions. Some were inappropriate. Some were accusing. The most blatant came from a layman from South Carolina to Dr. Randall Lolley of Southeastern Seminary. The question was an accusation of misbehaviour on the part of students. The direction of question implied Dr. Lolley and the seminary endorsed their behaviour. Dr. Lolley's response was both positive and clear. He had done everything appropriately in his power to address the issue. The messengers seemed satisfied with his response.
