IN OUR 141ST YEAR OF WORSHIP

Vol. XXXIV

No. 28

The Seagle Say:

MIDDLE SCHOOL CAMP . . .

was a rip-roaring success! In every measurable way — we counted it successful —

- terrific worship services;
- life-building Bible studies;
- recreation that was a riot;
- a super-duper mud softball game.

(You've never lived until you've played softball on a red-clay field with a half-inch of rainwater standing on it!)

— life-changing, life challenging decisions - by our kids and counselors.

The counselors were among the best I've seen. Mike and Joyce Hendrix, Dolly Flowers, Peaches Hosner, Becca Andrews, Marcie Dickson, Mark Seagle and William Thames were absolutely fantastic. They loved and counseled the "world's greatest middle schoolers!"

EDDIE BENTON . . .

is among America's best youth ministers. Eddie, Jacki and their family are providing serious Christ-like modeling for our kids. The quality of our camp was excellent and it's because of his commitment in providing the type program that will grow kids.

I'VE BEEN . . .

involved in youth camps for the last twenty-five (25) years. I go. I go because your young people need to know me and because I need to share with them in Bible study and worship. It's a time when more good work can be done in one week than we can normally do in a year.

AN APPEAL . . .

to parents is vital! The '88 camp date will soon be established. May I strongly urge you:

- to mark the date on the family calendar;
- to urge - even insist your young people sign up for camp;
- to begin prayer preparation for the '88 experience now.

'87 GOD AND COUNTRY . . .

day was wonderful. From beginning to end there was a keen awareness of God's presence and the joy of living in a country where such a day is possible.

Excitement continues to grow as we gather for worship and celebration. Tell you what — invite someone who needs Christ to join you — o.k.?

See you 1400 strong in Sunday School. The summer is a super exciting time.

LAST WEEK THE PERSONNEL COMMITTEE MADE IT OFFICIAL!

Nix Daniel, chairman of that committee, phoned the church and directed us to announce that Mike McCracken is no longer interim pianist — a position in which he has functioned well. Rather, we now have a regular church pianist; you'll be glad to hear that it is one in the same: Mike McCracken! I know you are as pleased and as excited as I am that Mike has accepted this all-important role in the life of our church.

Welcome aboard, Mike; you and Lynne Lauderdale make up what is probably the most outstanding keyboard team in the state . . . the Southern Baptist Convention, even. I count myself fortunate to be your Minister of Music.

TWO BIG DAYS FOR THE CHAPEL CHOIR are on Thursday and Friday of this week. This group continues to become concentrated in their preparations for TOUR '87. I am so pleased, even proud, of their progress! The 31 youth who have committed themselves to going on tour this year are displaying a great deal of determination to being the "best God created them to be." Please pray for them daily . . . and be sure to make plans on being present as the Chapel Choir presents their HOME CONCERT on Sunday, August 9, at 7:15 P.M.

CHAPEL CHOIR THIS WEEK:

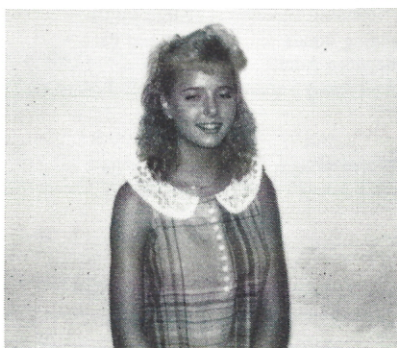

- 1) THURSDAY
6:00 P.M. — Youth Ensemble
7:00 P.M. — Full Choir
- 2) FRIDAY — PRE-TOUR "BASH"
3:00 - 9:00 P.M. at Santa Rosa Dunes

LAST SUNDAY'S "GOD AND COUNTRY SERVICE" WAS INSPIRING! It caused us all to realize again just how blessed a nation we are. Thanks to Bill Santo for his leading us in our pledge; and, to our Sanctuary Choir members for the extra effort they expended in preparing and memorizing our special patriotic music. Linda Christian made a proud contribution as she sang the "Red, White and Blue;" and our pastor captured the significance of the day as he preached on letting freedom ring. As you have guessed — to me, at least — it was a meaningful service.
