Church Celebrates Pastor's First Anniversary

"EXCUSE ME! Did you say it's been one year already?"

.....Looking back over the first year, Pastor? Here's what we see. A church where people and pastor are happy to be together — working, growing, serving the Lord. Thank You, Cecil and Peggie Seagle, for warmth, love, caring. Thank you for insight, encouragement and wisdom. Thank you for hard work, good example, and strong leadership. May God bless you, and us, with many more years of partnership!

Mark, Peggie & Cecil Seagle on their first Sunday, September 7, 1986.

The Seagle Say:

CLICHES . . .

- are a dime a dozen — right?
— "To fail to plan is to plan to fail."
— "What goes up's gotta come down."
(I'm not sure why that one sticks around!)

— "Plan your work, work your plan."

HONESTLY . . .

if well-worn phrases could get the job done we would have completed all our Father sent us to do.

Before you draw any conclusions, hear me well. Knowing where we're going is not an option. Can you imagine a trip to the West Coast without a map or a plan? The only person I know who would attempt it is someone with lots and lots of time on their hands. Even those would rather know exactly where they're going because of special places to see and visit.

A YOUNG MAN . . .

in his late 20's asked me if I could help him get on track. We set an appointment and I listened to his story of unrest, no sense of direction, feelings of failure and no real purpose.

When he finished I responded by telling him that I could in fact give him some help. "What do you suggest?" he asked. I laid out an idea of exploration, dreams, goal-setting and said from there you will likely begin feeling some satisfaction because there will be some measurable, personal goals achieved. I'll never forget his response. He physically shuttered. Then he said — "Yukk, I could never do that. I don't want to have goals or responsibilities or be restricted by a schedule."

The real issue? "As long as you aim at nothing, you're bound to hit it!" (How about that for another cliché?)

GOOD NEWS! . . .

Every indication is that "we're planning our work and working our plan." The aim is good. The direction is excellent. The hopes are bright.

The truth is — if we aren't careful all we'll have is — aims

- direction and
- hopes — unless we translate those into solid, rock-ribbed hard work. I pledge to you vision and dreams — but I also pledge to you the hard work of implementation.

Sooo — let's get on with the task. Let's reach the 1400 mark in Sunday School next Sunday. Let's eliminate the deficit by December 31.
