The Seagle Say:

"THANK YOU-ITIS" . . .

has gripped me and I've gotta' get it out of my system! Sooo — here goes!

THE CHALLENGER AWARD . . .

Banquet was a rip-roaring, huge success! Bill Curry was simply sensational as a speaker. Sandy Sanning and a literal host of folk made it all happen. More than 1800 high school football players were honored and fed by Chris Banakis - led cooks.

What a feast, what festivities, what a banquet! My thanks to one and all who made it happen!

MUSIC, MUSIC, MUSIC . . .

that's what Christmas has been about. We have worshipped our Lord wonderfully — led by Bob Morrison and the world's greatest musicians!

To one and all — thank you for work — and in Bill Santo's case, memory work — beyond the call of duty.

SUNDAY SCHOOL . . .

is off to the best start in a long, long time. At long last Gary Garland and a hard-charging, visionary Sunday School team is leading the way to positive increases in enrollment and attendance. Dear friends, that's not optional for us. Gary and our educational leadership are planning, praying and preparing us for our best days. Thank you, Gary, for wonderful leadership.

CARE FOR THOSE . . .

who hurt has been a massive, major program through the Samaritans Hands Ministry. Vicky Riggs and a host of volunteers have challenged us to our greatest year in food, clothing and assistance to those who are in desperate need.

Thank you, Vicky, for tremendous work in a caring program.

'88 IS UPON . . .

us! It will see us —

— launch a tremendous revival;
— train our staff in C.W.T. — a specialized evangelism process;

— bring two new staff members on board; one gifted, called and trained in children's ministries — the other gifted, called and trained in evangelism and discipleship;

— celebrate special holidays: Easter, Founders Day; 4th of July, etc., etc.

'88 will be our best yet. Roll up your sleeves and let's go to work!
