The Seagle Say:

JANUARY . . .

was "gang-busters!" We're continuing to bask in the afterglow of all that God did in this place during the Crusade. It was a wonderful, affirming, life-changing experience.

NOW WHAT?

Good question! Allow me positive response.

(1) The staff is going to a CWT training event in Moore, Oklahoma. They will be thoroughly equipped to return and assist me in developing a comprehensive evangelism training program. We celebrate an event like the Jay Strack Crusade — but all of us are mature enough to understand we must never be dependent on one event to produce evangelistic results. CWT will help us develop a life style of sharing our faith.

(2) Two new staff people will be welcomed aboard. One in Children's Ministries. The other in Evangelism and Discipleship.

(3) The staff and I are discussing ways to do the following:

- a). keep our prayer ministry alive, anointed and supportive;
- b). keep our worship services warm, dynamic and life-changing;
- c). keep the "Andrew Club" active and viable.

MY POINT . . .

is simple. This is no time to retreat, or to breathe a sigh of relief and say, "I'm glad the pastor's got that out of his system!" It's time we set our sights and concerns on those around us who desperately need a life-changing relationship to Christ.

HOW ABOUT . . .

our Sunday School? Gary Garland and a crew of committed leaders are turning it around in a positive manner. The enthusiasm reflects a new awareness of people.

HOW ABOUT . . .

our Samaritans Hands and Deacons Ministry Team? Both are providing physical and spiritual release and ministry to our City.

You are a considerate, balanced, consistent family. I can hardly wait to meet with you in worship Sunday. It's going to be dynamite! Let's move beyond the 1500 barrier — O.K.?
