BOB MORRISON — Minister of Music

THE SANCTUARY CHOIR CONTINUES TO LEAD OUT IN WORSHIP in a dynamic way! Thank God for the commitment to excellence and to consistent attendance that typifies the singers in this choir . . . and, thank God for the two finest instrumentalists anywhere in Lynne Lauderdale and Mike McCracken.

SO MANY OF OUR FINE CHURCH FOLK have shared with me recently that they are seriously considering getting into choir. That excites me! You're encouraged to follow through and come next Wednesday. Childcare is provided from birth through high school, and you will never join a more "open-armed" group of believers. As you add your voice with ours, you will enhance and strengthen the witness for Christ the Sanctuary Choir provides to our church, city and beyond; you'll also enrich your own service to Christ. Hope to see you Wednesday at 7:00 P.M.

CLARION CHOIR GOES TO DISNEY WORLD!!! Our Middle School Choir, the Clarion Choir, is going on a great trip to Disney World during Spring break, April 7-9. Adult sponsors have been enlisted, the bus has been secured, and the motel reservations have been made. I hope all 55 Clarion Choir members can go. More details will be discussed in our rehearsal next Wednesday at 4:30. Don't miss it!

OUR CHAPEL CHOIR WELCOMED BACK SEVERAL VETERAN MEMBERS last Sunday during our 4:30 rehearsal. All of our senior high and college-age youth are asked to prayerfully consider getting in — or, back in — our Chapel Choir. Our strong desire is that we present a convincing and bold witness through our singing; your joining our ranks would help us do this. Be a leader . . . do something for yourself and God — join Chapel Choir!

TELEVISION NEWS

FROM LAST WEEK'S APPEAL for new television crew members, four men have responded. They are Ray Taylor, Buddy Burks, Eric Burns and Mike Johnson. That's a great start! Let me encourage others of you to consider it. Remember, you only need an interest in this area, plus a willingness to be trained; add in a genuine desire to be a part of something significant in sharing the gospel with our city, and you've become a prime candidate to be a T.V. technician. Give me a call . . . let's talk about it.

The Seagle Say:

MAINTAINING BALANCE . . .

is a key matter for me. It's likely just as great an issue with you. An explanation is obviously needed.

STRESS . . .

in abundance is around us. I do not know when I've seen as many problems as in the last months. Even as I write these words we have

. . . Jim and Lynne Livingston struggling with the death of Marion;

. . . Mrs. Winnie Abney and Mrs. Hazel Scales and their families struggling with the deaths of their mothers;

. . . Mr. Les Fairchild in South Florida struggling with his mother's death;

. . . Les Sasnett, Mrs. Shofner and Paul Fleming critically ill;

. . . Mary Charles Renfroe moving through a frightening bout with pneumonia;

. . . Ricki Jernigan with a flare up with cancer. Of course I haven't exhausted the list — but I'm sure you see and sense the stress related to these terribly difficult, demanding days.

ANTICIPATION . . .

and excitement also pervades our family and fellowship. For instance:

. . . Malachi, taught by Dr. Conlee

Pickens, got off to a rip-roaring start Sunday evening. I sat in on most of the first session. What a terrific teacher! Dr. Pickens reminded me that there was an angel wrestler in the Old Testament — (shades of Jay Strack!) You need to study Malachi. It will be good for you.

. . . The Singles' Retreat promises to be a terrific experience. It's for all our singles and will feature an outstanding guest musician, along with Jim Murphy, Gary Garland and me.

. . . CWT is coming. The staff is being trained this week in Moore, Oklahoma, in a National CWT Seminar. When they return we will get it all ready and get going with one of the most exciting programs of evangelism in the country.

. . . A prospective staff person in Pre-school and Children's Ministry is being introduced for your consideration. She is tops in every way.

As indicated, maintaining balance isn't easy, but it is vital. While we struggle with tough days — keep looking to the Lord of life who will lovingly lead us to new and exciting days.

It's a fantastic journey being your pastor. I've never been more positive about our Lord's leadership.

See you Sunday — 1500 strong in Sunday School.

CONGRATULATIONS DAVID MILLER!

David Miller recently received The Phil Niekro Award at the Atlanta Braves annual awards banquet. The Phil Niekro Award is presented to the best pitcher in the Braves Minor League organization for the 1987 season.

David played in Durham, North Carolina, where he lead the league in innings pitched (205 1/3), victories (15), and strikeouts (155). He started the game for the Southern Division in the Carolina League All-Star Game at mid-season and was also selected to the all-star team at the end of the year.

David will be leaving February 17 for Spring Training and will not be back until the 1988 season ends in September.
