THEME: LIVING FOR JESUS

BRING A FRIEND!

This Sunday...a Day of Youth Choirs!

This Sunday, June 12, we will have the unusual occasion of being lead in both our Morning and Evening Worship periods by youth choirs. Our own Chapel Choir will be singing in our morning service. They traditionally do this on the Sunday before they leave on their annual summer choir tour, which begins this year on Wednesday, June 15. Then, in the evening service, we will hear the Chapel Choir from First Baptist Church, Oneonta, Alabama, as they present their Tour Concert. In addition to the choirs, both services will feature youth vocal ensembles and youth bell choirs. It promises to be a great day of singing; DON'T MISS IT!

NEWS FROM YOUR . . .

LAST WEEK I FAILED TO GET AN ARTICLE IN THE BUILDER, so allow me to back up a week and compliment our Children's Choirs program, Around the World with Music. It was simply outstanding! Each child and worker involved, as well as all the parents who did such an excellent job on costumes, deserve a round of applause and thanks. I'm especially indebted to my wife, Annette Morrison, who coordinates this area of our music ministry. God indeed blessed me on the day (long ago) when Annette and I met!

OUR CHAPEL CHOIR'S TOUR '88 IS ABOUT TO BEGIN! The dates are June 15 through June 26, and it will take us as far west as Ft. Worth, Texas. This group of youth has worked so very diligently on preparing their concert, striving to "study to show ourselves approved" . . . worthy of sharing the Good News through musical programs around our country. So that you might pray in specifics for our choir and our audiences, a TOUR '88 ITINERARY is printed below:

The Seagle Say:

SBC . . .

is set for San Antonio June 13-16. There was a time when this annual gathering was fun. Some characterized those years as:

- a giant family reunion;
- a happening;
- an event that effectively combined worship, business and motivation.

Much of my Kingdom perspective was shaped by our SBC gathering. The meeting included a Pastor's Conference that

- instructed
- taught
- motivated

— challenged and bound the people of called Southern Baptists together. Peggie and I loved it. We were made stronger and better because of it.

I AM . . .

Southern Baptist by choice. I love our denomination. I — like most of you — am grieved by the division, bitterness, back-room politics and power struggles. The stress, division and anger makes our annual gathering less than fun. My enthusiasm for what God is doing has not abated. My hurt for what we are doing to each other is deep.

MY REQUEST . . .

is simple — join me in prayer for our gathering. Please pray for:

- 1. Dr. Rogers as he presides;
- 2. the election of officers who shall lead us;
- 3. A clean, healthy atmosphere in which to transact the enormous amount of business that must be cared for;
- 4. healing of the rift that's obvious to all of us.

TEN MESSENGERS . . .

are elected from our Church family. They are all going to share in the meeting. I will provide you with a report upon my return.

In the meantime — let's work hard at having the strongest summer we've ever experienced. See you 1500 strong Sunday.
